The stake is to be $500 and the race is booked for Thursday, October 6th, on the Moosepark track. The race is to be the best three in five heats and as there has been considerable speculation as to which is the fastest horse, the match should prove a good one. COOMBS, PROPER OWNER OF TITLE "MIRACLE MAN"

(By James P. Sinnott in the New York Mail.)
Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 25—This is the story of the real "Miracle Man" of baseball. The story of the bravest of the brave. The story of John W. Coombs.
It is not a maudlin yarn that calls on the high heavens to cry out at the passing of a hat-rack ball player, who but for baseball would have dwelt in happiness around the village cracker barrel or driven a coal wagon. It is the story of a man of education and refinement as well as physical capabilities, who was swept from the heights of his chosen profession, which happened to be baseball, to the utter depths, through an accident that nearly cost him his life, who then had the courage, after an illness of two years, to take up his work where he left off, and rise again to the heights; who probably more than any single man is responsible for the Brooklyn club's first three in the pennant race.

LOCAL BOWLING YESTERDAY
Three two-men teams rolled an exciting match on Black's alleys last night, each man bowling six strings. The match was won by Messrs. C. Lunney and T. Wilson, and the former's third, fourth and fifth strings which totaled 132 broke the alley record for three consecutive strings, the former record of 374 being held by Wilson. Four men out of the six in the competition had over a hundred average, and the scores of all show excellent work on their part. The alleys have been just taken over from two Boston experts who have given them a thorough overhauling, and these men claim the alleys are now equal to any in Boston, the home of the Candle Pins.
The following is the score by strings made in the match:
C. Lunney— 79 91 120 125 127 94—636
T. Wilson— 98 132 94 120 95 91—830
Total 1266
T. Cosgrove— 105 88 88 86 106 99—575
H. Belyea— 97 114 91 101 100 113—616
Total 1191
A. Burk— 98 109 88 97 105 105—602
A. Beatty— 82 89 98 93 99 87—558
Total 1160

ANGLERS CAST FOR PRIZES

New York, Sept. 27.—Fishermen who have been casting here and there all summer in their efforts to lure the finny gamesters from their various habitats gathered yesterday in Central Park and held the tenth annual fly and bait casting tournament of the Anglers' Club, of this city. When one is not casting for an actual fish it is natural that he may not be stirred up enough to make any mistakes, and the result is that he is able to stir the line out a long way further than he might if he thought a fish were going to make a strike on the far end of his line.
It was natural, therefore, that the anglers who were flicking their lines out over the placid surface of a Central Park lake would make big casts. Perhaps they were all excited in the well if they were all excited in the prospect of getting a nice two pound speckled beauty or a small mottled black bass of equal proportions on the end. It is a lot different to cast for the actual fish and to cast for a float. With nothing to ruffle temperament and conditions very sweet it was no surprise to find the rod experts swinging the bait out to distances that one would hardly think necessary if they were actually fishing. Still it all went to show that these expert fishermen surely can swing a rod in the right direction if it is necessary.
The first event of the day was a bait casting contest for distance with quarter ounce weights. It was necessary to make an average on five casts to get the prize. It was open to those who had never done better than 120 feet. J. Gordon Fulton was the winner of this with 106 feet. G. B. Thayer was next with 103 1/2 feet, and C. W. Zaring best with 102 1/2 feet. Then followed an open handicap under the same conditions as existed in the first event. A. J. Marsh, who was able to sling the bait out 118 1/2 feet, was the winner. He was followed by H. M. Horton with 107 1/2 feet and James Pettitt with 96 feet.
