

GERMANY'S NEW CABINET READY TO START WORK

Fehrenbach Will Have Ministry Formed When the Reichstag Meets.

CHANCELLOR IS SAFE

Is Anxious to Fulfill Treaty Terms — Political — Semi-Truce is Declared.

Berlin, June 22.—After nine days of deliberations and conferences Germany's new governmental constitution appears to have been brought into being. It will, as has been more or less evident for a day or two past, consist of the Centre Party, the German People's Party and the Democrats. The new government will be under Fehrenbach, president of the defunct National Assembly, as Chancellor. The Coalition counts 175 votes in a house of 468, so it has not a clear majority but no other political alliance has been, or doubtless will be, the recipient, at first at any rate, of the support of the Majority Socialists and the Conservatives, the idea being to give the Government as much authority as possible in connection with the Spa conference.

Tomorrow the final programme will be drawn up. Fehrenbach will then be officially nominated Chancellor. Monday the work of cabinet-making will begin and the new administration will present itself before the Reichstag at the first meeting of that body on Thursday. The final difficulty to be overcome in the creation of the new body was the attitude of the People's Party towards the question of the monarchy in favor of which most members of that party expressed themselves during elections. The Democrats would not be satisfied with the declaration that it was possible for the ministers to serve in a Republican Government and yet be monarchists. The Democrats insist on something more definite, and in the end the People's Party agreed to state that they would stand by the Republican constitution and conduct no monarchist propaganda in the Government or in the ranks of the Coalition parties.

Those Who Remain.

As for the new government, it is likely that Koch, Home Secretary, Dr. Gessler, Minister of Defence, Wirt, Finance Minister, Heims, Food Minister and Geisler, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, will remain in office. De Heine will probably be Minister of Justice, and Herr von Kardorf, a prominent People's Party member, will join the cabinet.

Berlin newspapers are rather tired of the whole business of cabinet-making and the comments are consistently unimpressive. Democratic papers like the Berliner Tageblatt and the Vossische Zeitung are impatient. Forwarders blame the indecisive Socialists for having, by their standstill attitude, made a bourgeois government the only one possible. The Frankfurter Zeitung declares the only sensible coalition has been destroyed by the Social Democrats and that the substitute for it is an unhappy one.

There is a feeling that a government will last long and is inclined to the belief that it will increase, rather than mend, Germany's ills. The country as a whole is obviously not greatly interested. In summer general conditions of life are much easier and such a government will perhaps last until approach of winter brings up more serious problems and throws the people's minds back to politics. That such a government will last is tolerated is out of the question. Fehrenbach, who will be chancellor for a man of 68 and perhaps best known as president of the National Assembly, an office which he filled to general satisfaction. He was born in Wellen, a small Black Forest village, and after having been trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood, he became a lawyer. His professional progress was rapid and after playing a prominent part in Baden politics he was elected to the Reichstag in 1908. He became, as a member of the Catholic Centre, one of Erbert's right hand men through all the Zabrera affair, when the Centre Party put him forward to contribute its quota to the demand for a vote of confidence on Bethmann-Hollweg. He delivered such a strong speech against the militarism of the Zabrera type—his vote and voice were always for the service of the people of Alsace-Lorraine, whom he knew well—that he was often afterwards put up to deliver fighting speeches. He is a first advocate of Germany carrying out peace terms honorably.

He was born in Wellen, a small Black Forest village, and after having been trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood, he became a lawyer. His professional progress was rapid and after playing a prominent part in Baden politics he was elected to the Reichstag in 1908. He became, as a member of the Catholic Centre, one of Erbert's right hand men through all the Zabrera affair, when the Centre Party put him forward to contribute its quota to the demand for a vote of confidence on Bethmann-Hollweg. He delivered such a strong speech against the militarism of the Zabrera type—his vote and voice were always for the service of the people of Alsace-Lorraine, whom he knew well—that he was often afterwards put up to deliver fighting speeches. He is a first advocate of Germany carrying out peace terms honorably.

He was born in Wellen, a small Black Forest village, and after having been trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood, he became a lawyer. His professional progress was rapid and after playing a prominent part in Baden politics he was elected to the Reichstag in 1908. He became, as a member of the Catholic Centre, one of Erbert's right hand men through all the Zabrera affair, when the Centre Party put him forward to contribute its quota to the demand for a vote of confidence on Bethmann-Hollweg. He delivered such a strong speech against the militarism of the Zabrera type—his vote and voice were always for the service of the people of Alsace-Lorraine, whom he knew well—that he was often afterwards put up to deliver fighting speeches. He is a first advocate of Germany carrying out peace terms honorably.

He was born in Wellen, a small Black Forest village, and after having been trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood, he became a lawyer. His professional progress was rapid and after playing a prominent part in Baden politics he was elected to the Reichstag in 1908. He became, as a member of the Catholic Centre, one of Erbert's right hand men through all the Zabrera affair, when the Centre Party put him forward to contribute its quota to the demand for a vote of confidence on Bethmann-Hollweg. He delivered such a strong speech against the militarism of the Zabrera type—his vote and voice were always for the service of the people of Alsace-Lorraine, whom he knew well—that he was often afterwards put up to deliver fighting speeches. He is a first advocate of Germany carrying out peace terms honorably.

He was born in Wellen, a small Black Forest village, and after having been trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood, he became a lawyer. His professional progress was rapid and after playing a prominent part in Baden politics he was elected to the Reichstag in 1908. He became, as a member of the Catholic Centre, one of Erbert's right hand men through all the Zabrera affair, when the Centre Party put him forward to contribute its quota to the demand for a vote of confidence on Bethmann-Hollweg. He delivered such a strong speech against the militarism of the Zabrera type—his vote and voice were always for the service of the people of Alsace-Lorraine, whom he knew well—that he was often afterwards put up to deliver fighting speeches. He is a first advocate of Germany carrying out peace terms honorably.

He was born in Wellen, a small Black Forest village, and after having been trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood, he became a lawyer. His professional progress was rapid and after playing a prominent part in Baden politics he was elected to the Reichstag in 1908. He became, as a member of the Catholic Centre, one of Erbert's right hand men through all the Zabrera affair, when the Centre Party put him forward to contribute its quota to the demand for a vote of confidence on Bethmann-Hollweg. He delivered such a strong speech against the militarism of the Zabrera type—his vote and voice were always for the service of the people of Alsace-Lorraine, whom he knew well—that he was often afterwards put up to deliver fighting speeches. He is a first advocate of Germany carrying out peace terms honorably.

He was born in Wellen, a small Black Forest village, and after having been trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood, he became a lawyer. His professional progress was rapid and after playing a prominent part in Baden politics he was elected to the Reichstag in 1908. He became, as a member of the Catholic Centre, one of Erbert's right hand men through all the Zabrera affair, when the Centre Party put him forward to contribute its quota to the demand for a vote of confidence on Bethmann-Hollweg. He delivered such a strong speech against the militarism of the Zabrera type—his vote and voice were always for the service of the people of Alsace-Lorraine, whom he knew well—that he was often afterwards put up to deliver fighting speeches. He is a first advocate of Germany carrying out peace terms honorably.

He was born in Wellen, a small Black Forest village, and after having been trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood, he became a lawyer. His professional progress was rapid and after playing a prominent part in Baden politics he was elected to the Reichstag in 1908. He became, as a member of the Catholic Centre, one of Erbert's right hand men through all the Zabrera affair, when the Centre Party put him forward to contribute its quota to the demand for a vote of confidence on Bethmann-Hollweg. He delivered such a strong speech against the militarism of the Zabrera type—his vote and voice were always for the service of the people of Alsace-Lorraine, whom he knew well—that he was often afterwards put up to deliver fighting speeches. He is a first advocate of Germany carrying out peace terms honorably.

MOTHER!

"California Syrup of Figs"
Child's Best Laxative

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its fruit taste. Full directions on each bottle. You must say "California".

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

The following real estate transfers have been recorded:—
W. H. Bell to Elizabeth C. Tins, property in Wentworth street.
G. H. Cullen to E. A. Danhill, property in St. Martin's.
Eastern Trust Company to Elizabeth Gordon, property in Musquash.
Lella M. Parnett to O. Ring, property in Musquash.
William Floyd to Isabella Floyd, property in St. Martin's.
Sarah A. Green and husband to W. O. Monahan, property at Fiske Place.

Louisa M. Hubbard and husband to J. H. Vaughan, property in King street.
R. McBride to A. Shand, property in Simonds.
J. J. Nee to S. A. Cunningham, property in Lancaster.
Walter Vair and others to F. F. Whelpley, property in Lancaster.
Walter Vair and others to F. F. Whelpley, property in Lancaster.
Pauline L. Whittaker to F. S. Whittaker, property in King street.

Kings County.

G. H. Brown to Mary A. Cameron, property in Greenwich.
Manoah Danham to Soldiers' Settlement Board, property in Havelock.
Murray & Gregory, Ltd., to W. W. Arthur, property in Westfield.
J. D. O'Connell to Albert Mallory, property in Sussex.
M. O. McKenzie to Frank McKenzie, property in Westfield.
F. G. Smith to J. W. McNicol, property in Robesay.

MONTREAL MARKETS

Montreal, June 22.—Oats, Canadian Western, No. 2, $1.50; No. 3, $1.45. Flour, Manitoba, new standard grade, $14.85 to $15.00. Rolled oats, bag 90 lbs., $5.85 to $5.95. Bran, $5.45. Shorts, $6.15. Hay, No. 3, per ton, car lots, $29.00 to $30.00. Cheese, finest eastern, 27 1/2. Butter, choicest creamery, 56.

SLEEPING CAR TO CAMPBELLTON

Travellers Will Welcome New Feature in Canadian National Train Service, Effective June 28th.

The principal feature of interest to travellers out of St. John in connection with Canadian National time changes effective June 27th is the inauguration of a sleeping car service from St. John to Campbellton. A standard sleeper will be attached, except on Saturday and Sunday, to No. 10 train leaving at 11:45 p.m., connecting at Moncton with train No. 21 leaving at 8:30 a.m., and arriving at Campbellton at 9:30 a.m.

Returning sleeper will be attached to No. 32 train except on Saturday and Sunday. This train will leave Campbellton at 8:35 p.m. and connect at Moncton with No. 8, leaving for St. John at 2:30 a.m.

The means that travellers from St. John for Newcastle, Chatham, Bathurst and Campbellton can leave at night and be at their destination in the morning after a good night's rest on the sleeper. Travellers will also be enabled to make a comfortable night journey from Campbellton to St. John. Passengers from Boston for North Shore points and Gaspe can also make their connections by means of this service.

Y. W. C. A.

23 King Street

The Business Girls' Home

Rates $5.50 to $7.50

A Few Comfortable Rooms Now Available.

Cafeteria Open to the Public

Also, Combination Meals by Ticket.

Breakfast, Dinner and Tea—45c. each.

AFTERNOON TEA — Weekdays, Tea, Toast, Sandwiches, Cake.

Sherberts a Specialty.

ZIONISTS GATHERING IN LONDON

Public Ownership of Land, Equal Rights for All, a Cooperative Commonwealth.

LEADING PRINCIPLES OF THEIR PROGRAMME

Gathering Expected to Have Far-Reaching Effect on Palestine Matters.

London, June 22.—(A. P.)—Public ownership of land, a co-operative commonwealth, and equal rights for all, were advocated here today as the three leading principles of the social programme of the Zionist Organization of America.

Mr. de Haas arrived in London today with United States Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis, honorary president of the Zionist Organization of America; Judge Julian W. Mack, president; Nathan Straus, Mrs. Mary Fels, Professor Felix Frankfurter, Captain Abraham Tulin, David Rosenbloom and Louis Lipsky, organization secretary. These are the advance guard of the 35 delegates of American Zionists to the World Zionist Conference, convening in London July 4.

American Zionists will make a united effort to have the Pittsburgh programme, which they adopted in 1918 as the guiding social principles for the Jewish Homeland, approved by the World Conference, in the programme it will formulate for the policy to be carried out in Palestine. Mr. de Haas in the statement he gave out on the eve of what is considered the most important gathering of the Zionist movement here stressed the programme tenets of the Pittsburgh programme, declaring:

"The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."

The Zionists are not going to be satisfied with a Palestine or land of Israel, which will be a mere duplicate of the numerous small states of Europe or South America. They believe that the 2,000 years of suffering and martyrdom of the wandering Jew, given to our race wealth and power, which will go into the public treasury. The second principle indicates that the Zionists of America are resolved to encourage co-operative enterprise to the largest extent possible, so that a co-operative commonwealth may be gradually evolved, without, however, crushing individual initiative. There is no simple formula by which the co-operative commonwealth can be achieved. It must be a development through struggle and experimentation. In any event, we have set the goal! The third principle is one with which all Americans are familiar—at least in theory, though we may fall short in actual practice. Whereas, we confine our programme of equal rights to the narrow field of politics, the Zionists of America would apply it to all of Palestine life—to politics and economics, to law and industry, to man and woman, to every sect and every creed."