The others then similarly bound Miss Emmet, a sister, Charles Emmet, a nephew, two domestics, and a coachman. All were marched into Mr. Emmet's room and guarded with the utmost tenderness. Then the robbers ransacked bureaus, wardrobes, and trunks for the safe key, but they were unsuccess. ful. The key had been left in New York. The blast blew outward instead of inward, and the door was unopened. Next they operated with drills, and made a hole large enough to admit a hand. A quantity of jewelry and some money, estimated at $600 in all, were extracted. The robbers smashed the lockso that the safe could not be opened yesterday, and it is not known just what they had taken. They were in the house about three hours, and the agony of the prisoners was terrible. After they had gone Mr. Emmet slip ped one of his hands out of its prison, and then with difficulty released the other prisoners, and the alarm was sent to the village about noon. The robbers were tracked to the beach, but there they were lost sight of. No clue has been obtained. It is believed that they belong to a gang of desperadoes and horse thieves who have been the terror of the lower countles of Connecticut for several months.

Mr. Emmet's cottage is about two miles from the village of New Rochelle, and stands alone. There are no neighbors near enough to have heard an outcry if any had been made. PRESENTS! A. ST. JOHN TO HALIFAX. harvest. They had been too much hurt by the pante to wager their commissions with old-time recklessness. Hence the hour from ten to eleven was almost barren of sales short and purchases long, turns, margins, and rates for carrying. Their irrepressible spirits tended rapidly to the rites of the Lord ef Misrule, when the Governors deemed it wise to meet and put a period to their undignified antics. It was decided to close the Exchange at 1 p. m. and keep it closed until 10 o'clock on Friday morning. The announcement of the half holl-day was received with an exuberance of FLANNEL DEPARTMENT, FAR, FAR AWAY! ere they will find the largest and best DEALERS supplied at moderate rate Steamer "SCUD," CRYSTALS AND SPICES Ground or Pulverized to order. The announcement of the half holiday was received with an exuberance of spirits never approached by a similar announcement in a boarding school. In a twinkling innumerable instruments of noise were unhidden from the pockets of the festive brokers. The horns, trumpets, mouth organs, cheap and jangling, were blown, brayed and tooted with the sole purpos of making as loud and discordant noise as possible. They succeeded admirably. For a few minutes the presiding officer gesticulated wildly, bringing down his mallet with force enough to be heard above any ordinary din. It was useless, however. Even the Secretary could not catch the names of those who were nominated for fines. But even noise must have an end, and as the pandemonium of the Exchange gradually lapsed to its termination the voice of the President made itself heard over the tumult, ringing out "fine Smith, Jones, Robinson." Those worthies and those who emulated them began to reflect that times were too hard to pay $10 a minute for the best of fun. By a common impulse they rushed out of the exchange and into New street, just in time to catch a precisely similar crowd vacating the Gold Exchange. Together they made the circuit of the financial block. The noise had the reverberation of four walls and degenerated so in humorous quality that it soon reached an end, Its worst result was a temporary corner in corn juice in the neighboring saloons, The in-Owing to the stoppage of operations in the Woollen and Cotton Mills in the United States great quantities of Staple Goods have been placed in the market, for sale at prices ranging from 30 p. c. to 50 p. c. under usual prices.
