

GENUINE COLLECTOR The undersigned is a police officer in Dublin, Ireland, serving with the National Police Force. He is interested in obtaining officially sanctioned RCMP merchandise (insignia) for his collection, or making contact with any other collectors of insignia in the RCMP.

Mr. Reynolds would be most grateful for any assistance or advice in this regard. As a genuine collector, as well as a member of his department's historical society, he would also like to make his name available as a contact for any RCMP members who might be planning to visit Ireland. Mr. Reynolds would be pleased to be their guide on a tour of our facilities and introduce them to other Irish police officers. Please contact:

John Reynolds
142 Woodfield
Scholarstown Road
Dublin 16

Telephone: 494-7938

PEN PAL WANTED A British police officer wishes to correspond with members of the RCMP on matters of mutual interest. Please contact:

David Knott
13 Eades Street
Salford M69PG
England

A MAGAZINE FOR EVERYONE A lot of people still think the RCMP Quarterly is just a magazine for members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. If you are one of these people, you are in for a big surprise — a pleasant one. The Quarterly is available to everyone. Our worldwide readership, which is currently around 21,000, includes not only serving members of the Force: it includes members of the RCMP Veterans' Association, Public Service employees, members of other law enforcement agencies, universities and colleges, libraries, historical societies, business and industry, government agencies and a host of individual readers.

The RCMP Quarterly is published four times a year and is also available in French, under the title, la Trimestrielle de la GRC. Our current subscription rate is still a mere $5.00* per year (plus G.S.T. for Canadian subscribers), and most of our readers generally take out subscriptions for one or two years at a time.

If you would like more information on how you can join our growing family of satisfied Quarterly readers, please contact the Quarterly Subscriptions Manager, RCMP Headquarters, Ottawa, Ontario, K1A 0R2. Telephone: (613) 998-6317 or fax: (613) 993-5894.

*See inside back cover

DRIVEN TO DISTRACTION

We know that drivers often claim they are badly done by but we have come across one motorist who seems to have had a very harsh deal — at least it is according to his shotgun certificate application form. He has declared a conviction for "Driving with Undue Care and Attention." Who says you can't be too careful.

Reprinted from POLICE BOX, North Yorkshire Police