THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1915.

Wardsville

Wardsville, July 12.—The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Wardsville Methodist church met at the home of Miss Pearl Ellwood on Thursday, July 8, and was largely attended. The meeting was led by Mrs. Branton, and a very interesting paper on kindergarten instruction was read by Miss Sheppard. Mrs. Branton also gave a fine reading entitled "The Mitebox." The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Isaac Wilson.

J. A. Dowsell and family are spending their vacation in Simcoe. Mrs. Mac Elliott and children are spending the week with the former's mother, Mrs. McVicar. The friends of Wm. Dykes are pleased to see him much improved in health.

Mrs. Andrew Wilson still remains quite ill. Her grand-daughter, Miss Armstrong, is with her.

Miss Marion Copeland, of Glencoe, is spending the vacation at the home of her uncle, James Ellison.

A number here saw the fire at Rodney on Saturday night, which destroyed the agricultural buildings. Misses Beatrice and Lulu Turk have returned from Port Stanley, where they have been visiting for the past two weeks.

James Guendell, of Arkansas, is visiting at W. A. Turk's.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Malcom, of Newbury, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas on Wednesday last.

Master Emerson King spent Thursday with Lloyd Simpson.

Miss Florence McGregor, who has been on the sick list, is recovering.

The High School Club, who were camping at Port Glasgow, have returned home, reporting a fine outing.

Miss Irene Tolmie, of New Glasgow, spent the past week with Miss Vera Palmer.

The hay crop in this locality is turning out better than was expected.

Wardsville, July 12.—J. A. Dowsell, public school teacher, has handed in his resignation. He intends leaving here the latter part of August for Essex, where he has been engaged as principal of the seven-roomed public school there. Mr. Dowsell has been in this community for five years, and has done splendid work in the school.

His loss will be felt by the Methodist church, in which he took an active part, and the Farmers' Club and Fruit Growers' Association, of which he was secretary.

EKFRID STATION.

Richard Congdon and family attended the funeral of his brother William at Dresden last week.

Miss Anna McCallum, of Grace Hospital, Detroit, is spending a three weeks' vacation at her home here.

Mrs. John Wrinn, of Detroit, and Miss Laura Eaton, of Toledo, spent the Fourth of July with Mrs. Eliza Eaton.

Mrs. J. Hurley and daughter Margaret, of Cass City, Mich., are visiting with friends here.

A. D. McCallum is on the sick list this week.

Samuel McLean has purchased a new driver from D. McIntyre, of Appin.

John Wrinn, of Detroit, is renewing old acquaintances here after recovering from a long illness.

The showery weather of last week has delayed haying to a certain extent. Other crops are much benefited by the showers.

John McEachren, of Thameville, paid a short visit to friends here last week.

EKFRID.

Despite the rain a large crowd gathered to have an afternoon's fun at the Ekfrid school picnic, S. S. No. 4. One enjoyable feature was the sports, an account of which follows:—
Girls under 8, dash—M. Campbell, J. Hull.

CAIRO.

Miss Beulah Sullivan, of Parkhill, is home for her vacation.

The sudden demise of R. H. Heart, on the 14th inst., was a shock to the residents of this community. His remains were interred in the Sheldahl cemetery on Thursday last, and the funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends.

J. A. Armstrong, accompanied by a couple of friends, motored to Watford on Tuesday evening.

Miss Ethel Grieve, of S. S. No. 7, left for her home in Port Elgin, by G. T. R. to Detroit, thence by boat.

Miss Leta Throver, of S. S. No. 10, left for her home in Strathroy on Friday.

A. D. Perry is a Detroit visitor at present.

Fred Burr and his sister, Miss Bella, are visiting friends in Detroit.

Chas. West, of London, accompanied by other friends in his auto, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Summers on Saturday evening.

John McKewen, accompanied by his cousin, Miss Ella Short, of Aberfeldy, visited friends here on 14th inst.

Miss Mona McKewen is visiting friends in the vicinity of Aberfeldy.

Mrs. Fred Clements and family are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Juncos.

Miss Leona Switzer, of Detroit, is a visitor at the home of her uncle, J. W. Switzer.

Chas. Osier, who has been appointed a judge at the coming agricultural fair, spent some days during the week at Guelph, attending to his duties as inspector of horses.

"BY MEDICINE LIFE MAY BE PROLONGED."—So wrote Shakespeare nearly three hundred years ago. It is so today. Medicine will prolong life, but be sure of the qualities of the medicine. Life is prolonged by keeping the body free from disease. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil used internally will cure coughs and colds, eradicate asthma, overcome cramp and give strength to the respiratory organs. Give it a trial.

THE HORRORS OF CONSTIPATION

Bowels Almost Paralyzed "Fruit-a-tives" Relieved

St. Boniface de Shawinigan, P.Q.

February 3rd, 1914.

"After suffering with terrible Constipation for over 2 years, 'Fruit-a-tives' relieved me. While a student at Berthier College, I became very ill and was forced to leave. Severe pains across the abdomen continually tortured me and my digestion became paralyzed. Some one advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and at once I felt a great improvement. After taking four or five boxes, I was completely relieved and have never had any return of this trouble."

MAGLOIRE PAQUIN.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At Dealers or Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Newbury

Miss Anna Gordon, who has been teaching in the Business College in Detroit, spent Sunday at her home here on her way through to Toronto where she is taking another position.

Miss F. Heatherington has returned from a visit with Comber friends.

Miss Margaret McRae returned from Detroit last week.

Mrs. Lythe, of Detroit, and Mrs. Frumviller, of Port Huron, visited their sister, Mrs. R. J. Haggith, last week.

Miss Nita Stalker, of Toronto, has been visiting her uncle, D. Stalker, Richard Johnston, of Windsor, was in town last week.

Mrs. Jas. Patterson spent the week-end in Detroit.

The funeral of the late Robert Johnston was held on Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. Hale conducting the service in Christ church, interment in the Johnston cemetery. Deceased, who was in his eightieth year, had, although ailing, been about, and only returned recently from a trip to the West, but took seriously ill and passed away at his home in Euphemia on Saturday night after a few hours' illness. His wife died some years ago. Two sons, Arthur, in the West, and George, at home, and four stepdaughters, Mrs. Lythe, of Detroit; Mrs. Frumviller, of Port Huron; Mrs. Vrencher, of Bothwell, and Mrs. R. J. Haggith, and two stepsons, Richard, of Windsor, and Wm., in the West, are left.

Appin

Miss Marjorie Covey and friends motored from London and spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Covey.

The marriage of Miss Florence M. Eddie, of Appin, to Harry E. Brown, of Gleichen, Alberta, is announced to take place on July 17th at Calgary, Alberta.

CRINAN.

Crinan, July 13.—The Crinan cheese factory made a shipment of cheese to Sarnia last week. The price was about 15 cents per pound. The factory has so far had a successful season, having a much larger output than for some years.

Alex. Ashton, an old Crinan boy, was married July 7 to Miss Adams, of Toronto. Mr. Ashton is now conducting a successful business at Whittla, Saskatchewan. He is a son of Henry Ashton, who for a number of years lived on concession A.

J. Smith, of West Lorne, has the contract of placing a cement foundation under the sheds of Argyle Presbyterian church.

THEY DRIVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Sarsaparilla and Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

Gay Life in the City.

It's about time to put the kibosh on all this talk about keeping the boys on the farm. Why should a boy or a young man want to stay on a farm when he can go to the city, and, after tramping through the heat, or cold, or rain, or snow for five or six weeks, and a fine, fat, easy, soft snap of a job as a motorman? Then all he will have to do will be to get up at about five a. m., winter and summer, swallow a boardinghouse breakfast that a hog on his father's farm would spurn, dash merrily to the car barn, take the abuse of a slave-driving car starter, and go gallily to work. Ah, what pleasure to stand all day in a vestibule that is perfumed with the smells of the unwashed bodies of just-over immigrant laborers, on their way to work in a sewer! Think of the fragrance of all grades of tobacco in cigars, in cigarettes and in pipes of many degrees of strength. It is simply great to breathe this spicy air all day. In the meanwhile one hears the sweet compliments of the ladies and gentlemen who do not happen to think of signalling when they want to get off, but who rightfully feel that the motorman should have known, if he was such a fat-headed job, and who do not hesitate to tell him so. Oh, yes, it's great. Every farmer boy ought to leave home at once and dash to the city. Think of the wages he'll get! Why, at the end of a month, after paying for board, room, laundry, clothes and uniform, union dues and assessments, he'll have almost enough left to go to a movie show. But he probably won't go, because he'll be so all-around and so full of the poisonous reek that he inhaled all day, that he will tumble into bed to forget it until the alarm clock calls him to begin all over again.—Decker-ville, Mich., Recorder.

A PLEA FOR DANGER.

This Writer Argues That Too Much Safety May Breed Weaklings.

In these days of the placarding of "safety first" and the juxtaposition of "safe and sane," is a voice necessarily that of a madman if it be heard in the land singing the praises of danger and risk? With all our laws and movements and committees for the elimination from our daily life of all chances unfavorable to life, limb, health and property are we in no danger of saving the body at the expense of the spirit? Too great security breeds weaklings, and too nervous a regard for physical safety is not only craven but ultimately unwise. Our nation, if it is to be great and free, must set high value on the courage, resourcefulness and high spirit of the individual citizen. Now, courage is nourished on dangers coped with, and the prudent soul that always "plays safe" cannot be called high or noble. Our evolution up to this point has always been conditioned by the need of self preservation in the face of innumerable enveloping dangers. The creature that hesitated to take chances or always avoided threatened injury soon ceased to exist, either as species or individual.

Hence our bodies, our minds, our very spirits have been evolved, in part at least, to fulfill this function of coping with some kind of danger. For what purpose our eyes, our ears, our nerves, our muscles, our sense of sight and smell? A removal, then, from our environment of this element of danger tends to be followed by degeneracy and atrophy in all parts of our natures. Indeed, in modern life we are prone to become staid fed in body and spirit. This we tacitly confess in our passion for sport, which is essentially mimic hunting or war and for the vicarious adventure of romantic fiction.—Scribner's.

MARBLES OF VERMONT.

They Surpass the Product of Italy's Famous Quarries.

The greatest marble producing industry in the world is no longer to be found in the famous Carrara district of Italy, but in Vermont, where one of the richest veins in the world stretches in an irregular line across the state. So great is the production of marble in this section that the inhabitants have lost much of their appreciation of its value and use it for such humble and utilitarian purposes as paving, underpinning for barns, hitching posts, stepping stones and drinking troughs for horses. This vein is about fifty-seven miles long, from 1,600 to 2,200 feet in width and runs from 375 to 850 feet in depth, and from it is being taken in enormous quantities white marble that is equal to the finest Italian marble as well as an endless variety of blue, yellow, green and jet black marbles.

For quarrying and finishing the marble the most up to date methods and equipment are used, no part of the work being done by hand that can possibly be done by machinery. Hand methods of drilling, still in vogue in Italy, have been entirely superseded by power driven drills and channeling machines. The blocks as they come from the quarry are handled by derricks and are conveyed in most cases by an inclined railway or a ropeway to the mills, where they are sawed and shaped by power driven machines, only the last delicate stage of polishing being done by hand.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Song and Addition.

If soldiers be encouraged by the authorities to sing on the march choir servants might be exhorted to lighten their duties in the same way. Sir Laurence Gomme confesses that at the beginning of his official career he used to add up huge columns of figures for statistical purposes by the simple process of doing the task to the tune of Gregorian music, and he was always correct in his arithmetical results. Examples of the practice of performing labor tasks to the accompaniment of music could, Sir Laurence says, be produced from all over the world. He instances the case of the London pavers who until forty years ago or so used to be mulcted by their mates of the price of a pot of ale if they omitted to groan rhythmically at each thud of the ram.—London Standard.

Bean Milk.

"Pigeon milk is a myth," said a milkman, "but there actually is a bean milk. It is drunk, put in tea and coffee and even frozen for ice cream. The Japs are its inventors. This milk is made of the soya bean. The bean is first soaked, then boiled in water. After the liquid turns white sugar and phosphate of potash are added, and the boiling is kept up till a substance of the thickness of molasses is obtained. Nobody could tell this bean milk from condensed milk, and when water is added it can't be told from the fresh. The Japanese poor use nothing else."

Putting it Gently.

"Are you trying to accuse me of overcharging you?" asked the taxicab driver.

"No," replied the man who is mild, but tenacious. "All I say is that your fare indicator ought to be arrested for exceeding the speed limit."—Washington Star.

Effective Cause.

Smith—I understand that some of your hens have stopped laying. Jones—Two of them have. Smith—What's the cause? Jones—Motorcar.—Stray Stories.

There never was a bad man but had ability for good service.—Edmund Burke.
