"ST. AUGUSTINE"

Sacramental Wine.

The REV. DR. COCHRANE writes:-

BRANTFORD, May 23rd, 1895

Messrs. J. S. Hamilton & Co

GENTLEMEN, - The St. Augustine Wine used in my own church on sacramental occasions, as well as in many other churches, I have always heard spoken of in the highest terms and is admirably suited for the purpose. Its deservedly high reputation for purity can be relied upon. The unfermented grape juice also commends itself to those who prefer that the wine should not be fermented and should have a large and increasing sale in our Presbyterian and other Churches.

Pollokshaws Church has been re-opened after enlargement and renovation at a cost of £400.

The Salvation Army has now twenty-two factories and workshops, employing 10,700 persons, both men and women.

The late Miss Anna Atkins, of Newry, has bequeathed to different agencies of the Assembly sums amounting to £1,050

A boy purchased some old music books in Paris and found bonds valued at 125,000 francs concealed between their leaves.

Rev. James Anderson, senior minister of Inch, has died, from the effects of being thrown from his trap, in his 73rd year.

Rev. J. L. Ross, of Markinch, has entered on the 53rd year of his ministry, he having been ordained to Markinch in 1843.

King Premph, of Ashantee, against whom a British expedition is being sent, has exactly 3,332 wives allowed him by law.

Perfumed butter is becoming fashionable in New York. Wrapped in cheese cloth, the butter is allowed to stand in a bed of roses or violets.

A stained-glass window has been placed in Bathgate Church to the memory of Rev. William Bennie, who was minister of the parish for twenty-two years.

The British Medical Association is one of the largest—if not the very largest—scientific bodies in the world. Its membership, which in 1873 was 1,500, now numbers 15,669.

The Queen has arrived at Windsor for a month's residence. After observing the thirty-fourth anniversary of Prince Consort's death she will proceed to Osborne as usual for Christmas.

The wooden nutmeg has been outdone in the county of Durham, where a man gained a prize in a vegetable show with a "pickling cabbage" which he had fashioned out of wood.

Lerwick Parish Church has been re-opened after undergoing extensive alterations at a cost of £1,500. Several handsome gifts, including a font, communion chairs and a reading desk have been made.

Rev. J. Dickson's semi-jubilee as minister of St. Ninian's Free Church, Leith, was celebrated by a social gathering and several valuable gifts. Mr. Dickson was the first United Presbyterian minister to receive a call to the Free Church.

The Princess of Wales and her daughters have been making excursions in the vicinity of Sandringham, accompanied by Prince Charles of Denmark, the future husband of Princess Maud, who has now rejoined his ship for a cruise in the West Indies.

The Queen has had her attention called by one of her chaplains, the Rev. Dr. Tullock, to Mr. Maclaren Cobban's new Scots romance, "The King of Andaman," and Her Majesty was pleased to send the author a message of gracious and kindly interest.

Lord Overton presided at the annual missionary meeting of Glasgow Free Presbytery, which was held in St. Andrew's Hall. Rev. W. Campbell, of Formosa, Rev. J. Lawrie, of the New Hebrides, and Miss Paxton, of Poonah, described missionary work in their spheres of labour.

Rev. W. Clark's report to Glasgow U.P. Presbytery on Sunday observance was of a somewhat pessimistic character. More shops are open in that city on Sunday, and more excursions to the country are organized, but the example and the teaching of a large portion of the Press might be set down as a formidable obstacle to the maintenance of Sabbath observance.

Addressing a meeting in Edinburgh, in the interests of the Free Church Sustentation Fund, Dr. W. Ross Taylor said there were 550 ministers in the Church with a yearly income of less than £200—many of them having only £153—yet, while people heard of the "cry of the curate," they did not hear any cry from Free Church mansees. Therefore, there was all the more reason why the position of those brethren should be improved. Principal Rainy urged that the Church should take a fresh view of the whole question, and consider how they should more adequately do their duty.

A GRATEFUL LETTER.

A PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND LADY SPEAKS FOR THE BENEFIT OF HER SEX.

Had no Appetite, was Pale and Easily Exhausted—Subject to Severe Spells of Dizziness, and Other Distressing Symptoms.

TIGNISH, P.E.I., May 30th, 1895.

To the editor of L'Impartial:

Dear Sir, -I see by your paper the names of many who have been benefitted by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I feel that I ought to let my case be known as I am sure that many women might be benefitted as I have been. For a number of years I have been almost an invalid. I did not know the nature of my malady. I had a tired feeling, being exhausted at the least exertion. I had no appetite and was very pale. I sometimes felt like lying down never to rise. A dizziness would sometimes take me causing me to drop where I would be. During these spells of

A Dizziness would Overtake me.

Dizziness I had a roaring sound in my head. I took medical treatment but found no relief. My husband and father both drew my attention to the many articles which appeared from time to time in your paper concerning the cures wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. At first I had no faith in them, in fact I had lost faith in all medicines and was resigned to my lot, thinking that my days were numbered in this world. Finally, however, I consented to try the Pink Pills. I had not taken them long before I felt an improvement and hope revived. I ordered more and continued taking the pills for three months and I must say that to day I am as well and strong as ever and the many ailments which I had are completely cured. I attribute my complete recovery to the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and hope by telling you this that others may be benefitted by them.

Mrs. WILLIAM PERRY.

After reading the above letter we sent a reporter to interview Mrs. Perry and she repeated what she had already stated in her letter. Her husband, William Perry, and her father, Mr. J. H. Lauder, J.P., and fishery warden, corroborated her statements. Ed. L'Impartial.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People make pure, rich blood, restore shattered nerves and drive out disease. They cure when other medicines fail and are beyond all question the greatest life-saving medicine ever discovered. Sold by all dealers, but only in boxes the wrapper around which bears the full trade mark: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Pills offered in loose form, by the hundred or ounce, are imitations, and should be avoided as they are worthless and perhaps dangerous.

Dr. J. Marshall Lang presided over two meetings in Glasgow having reference to the Pan-Presbyterian Council to be held in that city next June. Very satisfactory progress has been made in raising the £1,500 needed for expenses, and it was decided to issue a circular setting forth the aims of the Council and the services it has already rendered to the cause of Christianity.
