

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that such sales shall, previously, be publicly advertised in any two of the Newspapers published in either of the said Cities of Quebec and Montreal, as the case may be, and if in Three-Rivers, in any Newspapers published thereat, for the space of one month next after the date of the said order or authority to sell, giving notice of the place where the said Goods and Effects may be seen every day, Sundays and Holidays excepted, between the hour of noon and two in the afternoon before the sale, to the end that any person having lost the same or any part thereof, or being interested therein, may claim them; and in case any of the said Goods or Effects may, on inspection, be claimed by any person or persons, as Owners thereof, any two Justices of the Peace of the District, on legal proof that the same or any part or parcel of them belong, bonâ fide, to the person or persons claiming the same as Owners, may deliver or order such Goods or Effects, so claimed, to be delivered to the Owner or Owners thereof, who shall respectively give a Receipt or Receipts for the same, which Receipt or Receipts shall be written in the said Book of original entry.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if such Goods and Effects be not claimed as above-mentioned, the proceeds of the sale thereof (the necessary charges of advertising and selling the same being previously deducted,) shall be paid over to the said Clerks of the Peace, and shall constitute a fund towards defraying the expence of their respective offices, and shall be applied to the purposes thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of all monies arising from the sale of any such Goods and Effects as aforesaid and from this Act, shall be accounted for to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, his heirs and successors shall be pleased to direct.
