WHEREAS in and by the ordinance made and passed in the twenty seventh year of the reign of our said Sovereign Lord GEORGE the THIRD intituled
 "an Ordinance to continue in force for a limited time an ordinance made in the "twenty fifth year of his Majesty's reign, intituled "an ordinance to regulate the "proceedings in the courts of civil Judicature and to establish trials by Jury in ac"tions of a commercial nature and personal wrongs to be compensated in damages,
 "with such additional regulations as are expedient and necessary;" It is amongst other things enacted and declared "That the provincial court of appeals shall have "authority to make rules and orders, to regulate, effectuate and accelerate the pro"ceedings in all causes of appeal for the advancement of Justice and to prevent "unnecessary delays and expence in the same." And whereas also in and by the provincial statute made and passed in the forty first year of the reign of our said Sovereign Lord GEORGE the THIRD, intituled "An Act to amend certain forms of pro"ceeding in the courts of civil Judicature in this province and to facilitate the ad"ministration of Justice." It is amongst other things enacted and declared, "That "the different courts of civil Judicature in this Province shall have power and au"thority to make and establish orders and rules of practice in the said courts in all "civil matters, touching all services of process, execution and returns of all writs,
 "proceedings for bringing Causes to issue, as well in term time, as out of term and "other matters of regulation within the said courts." It is therefore ordered by the court of our Lord the King now here as follows, That is to say:
