Only two horses ran one mile in 1.41 this season. Those were Burch, by Enquirer, and Swift, by Great Tom.

The winter race meeting at New Orleans will begin on Dec. 15. Over 300 horses are expected at the track before that date.

B. F. Countz, who caught for the Bridgeports in the Eastern League last season, has been engaged by the Newarks for next year.

Pat Sheedy writes from San Francisco that John L. Sallivan's share of the gate receipts in his fight with Paddy Ryan was $6,700.50, and Ryan's share was $2,250.

The articles of agreement between Tommy Danforth of New York and Tommy Warren of Louisville, Ky., for $1500 a. side and a purse of $1000, have been signed. The battle is to be fought in private, neither man to weigh over 118 pounds. Its pounds.

Mr. Robert Bonner has brought Maud S. from Tarrytown to his New York stable, where she will remain throughout the winter. She will be exercised on the road a little, but the real intention is to stay up her muscles so as to keep her in condition for an attempt at record breaking early next year.

Setting aside the oldsters removed by generations from direct personal comparison, and taking the riders of whom George Fordham. Harry Custance, John Osborne, James Snowden and others more or less retired or still in service may be quoted, Archer could claim precedence of all with whom he might be compared.

The following are the six leading winning dence of all with whom he might be compared.

The following are the six leading winning jockeys in England up to November 12: Fred. Archer, 512 mounts; won 17, lost 312. C. Wood, 438 mounts; won 17, lost 311. G. Barriet, 530 mounts; won 17, lost 311. G. Barriet, 530 mounts; won 17, lost 311. F. Barrett, 513 mounts; won 60, lost 311. F. Barrett, 513 mounts; won 70, lost 198.

Emma B., record 2.22, owned by Richard K. Fox, is now in foal to Bayonne Prince, owned by R. Cadagan of Bayonne, N. J. Emma B. is beautful gray, a model to look at. She cost Richard K. Fox $10,000. Judging by the performances and breed of Mambrino Prince and Emma B., their foal should be valuable, and ture out a Byer. Bayonne Prince's sire is Kentucky Prince.

There is probably no disease to which mankind is heir which has brought out so many shams and frauds as Catarrh has. Of all human ills this one seems to have been ordained specially to exercise the ingenity of quacks in the production of nostrums as manifold as they are worthless. It is therefore actually refer to the treatment of A. H. Dixon & Son. 300 King street west, Toronto. Canada. We have the mame of a gentleman in our possession, which will be given to enquirers, who has been a sufferer from Catarrh for the past 20 years.
