

suddenly, and once I made it; I lost no time in sub. letting my apartment.

We (Dorothy and I) are located just about two blocks from the Ocean, last winter, we were right on the Ocean front, but I found it a little damp, so this year we decided to keep inland. We are fourteen miles out of Los Angeles.

I love the combination of mountains and ocean, and I hope when my time comes, that I can come to California to die and be put away to rest.

Does that sound morbid? It isn't if it does. You cannot get morbid or lonely in California, at least I know I cannot.

Dorothy has not forgotten you,
You can flatter yourself, that you have a high place in her regard, as she does not give her affections indiscriminately.
