

C121859

17th May, 1938.

Memo. for Mr. Pickering,-

Col. Casselman informs me this morning, in reply to an enquiry by Mr. Turgeon last night, that whatever the Government decides to do in respect to the 24th and 26th of May is perfectly satisfactory to the Opposition.

He declined to say whether they wished to close or sit on these days.

D. Mackenzie,
Private Secretary.
