For the Prime Minister:

To note

Mrs. Per Wijkman, wife of the Minister of Sweden, telephoned and said she had spoken to you about accepting an invitation to dinner, and that you had expressed your willingness to accept. The dates she suggested were the 19th or 20th of July, but she said she could fix an earlier date if that would suit you better.

I told Mrs. Wijkman that I could probably give her no definite word until tomorrow.
