

A- Another week or so.

Q- After you left?

A- No, sir, from when I came back.

Q- You mean more than six weeks after you went AWL?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- Had you known draft being around that long before -- they usually leave quickly, don't they? You knew that?

A- I didn't know that.

Q- What made you believe it would take seven weeks before it would pull out?

A- I figured it would still be around here when I came back.

Q- Seven weeks, you'd figured?

A- (no audible answer)

Q- How long did you really think it was going to be?

A- (no audible answer)

Q- You figured within the six weeks it would have been gone?

A- No, sir, I fully intended to get on that draft when I came back. That is why I gave myself up and gave myself up in uniform at the guard house. That is why I left there and came down here.
