

at 1945 hrs someone opened the front door of the house without ringing the bell, I looked to see who it was and I saw the accused (Sullivan) and he asked me again for a pencil and paper because he would not be back at 2230 hrs, the accused wrote on a piece of paper and covered the upper part of his face with his arm while he was writing, the accused was standing in the hall and I was standing by the door. In the meantime a second soldier came into the house went upstairs and I heard him enter the room just above the hall, this was the room occupied by the Sgt's quarters, then the accused (Sullivan) asked me for a glass of water, I went to the kitchen to fetch a glass of water and returned with the glass and gave it to the accused (Sullivan) and the soldier who was up stairs, came down in a hurry and left the house, I did not get a look at the soldier who left the house at this point as it was dark in the hallway, the accused (Sullivan) then returned the pencil and paper and left the house, when the soldier left I looked at the paper he had written on and found only a few scribbled marks. I recognize "Ex A" as the paper the accused (Sullivan) was writing on and left in the house on the night in question.
