

13 14c. The high cost September and early October are entirely withdrawn from the market for the present. The butter market is quiet with a somewhat say tendency prevailing the last few days. The receipts have fallen off this week, however, and with the diminishing supply of fresh goods the market should stiffen up considerably. The few lots of fresh butter coming in are being bought up at from 25c to 26c a lb., according to quality.

CITY MILK SUPPLY DEPARTMENT

TORONTO PRODUCERS STAND BY PRICE
Following a meeting of Scarborough and York Townships milk producers, held at Woburn on Dec. 5th, about 300 cans of milk were held because the dealers refused to pay $1.55 a can. On Dec. 8th, owing to the refusal of the milk dealers to live up to their agreement with the producers, the committee having charge of the wagon routes, met Mr. Price, the president of the milk dealers' association, but refused to accept any offer less than $1.55 a can. Mr. Price who buys about 130 cans in Scarborough, refused to pay the agreed price.

A large number of dealers have signed contracts at $1.55 an gallon can, and will live up to their contracts. Some of the dealers visited Scarborough the day before the trouble began and made personal agreements with the producers at $1.55 a can. After the meeting Mr. Price met a number of his producers and it is said that he made some conditional arrangements with them. Whatever the nature of it the milk producers' association refuses to recognize
