

MY PIGS AT 5 MONTHS OF AGE WEIGH 250 LBS.

International Stock Food Co., Minneapolis, Minn.

DRILL ROY, O., Sept. 24, 1903.

GENTLEMEN:—I am showing a herd of Berkshire hogs that I have fed "International Stock Food" from the time they came, and I am a winner in the show ring. I have pigs that came in April that weigh 250 lbs. each. I sold one pig just nine weeks old that weighed 86 lbs. Its mother was fed "International Stock Food" three times per day after the pigs were four days old. I fed her "International Stock Food" six weeks before she had her pigs.

I have a herd of short-horn cattle that I fed "International Stock Food" to all the year around, and it paid me big. I fed it to my ewes and lambs with the best results. To make a long story short, I can't nor won't be without it. I recommend "International Stock Food" to all breeders of fine stock.

Very respectfully,

CLARK GAMBLE.

Advice to all Sufferers from Nerve Trouble is

"GET A BOX OF
MILBURN'S
HEART AND NERVE PILLS."

He says: "I have been ailing for about a year from deranged nerves, and very often weak spells would come over me and be so bad that I sometimes thought I would be unable to survive them. I have been treated by doctors and have taken numerous preparations but none of them helped me in the least. I finally got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Before taking them I did not feel able to do any work, but now I can work as well as ever, thanks to one box of your pills. They have made a new man of me, and my advice to any person troubled as I was, is to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills."

GOSSIP.

It is reported that a young married man, of Golconda, wrapped in the greatest excitement, flew to the telegraph office of his town, and wired his wife's relatives a happening as follows: "Twins to-day, more to-morrow."

Wife—"Oh, doctor, Benjamin seems to be wandering in his mind."

Doctor (who knows Benjamin)—"Don't trouble about that—he can't go far."

An Irishman was travelling down by train from London to Brighton, and a smart, dapper-looking gentleman got into the same carriage with him at Victoria Station. The Irishman was a good-nature fellow, and when the train started he tried to get into a conversation with his fellow-traveller.

"It's a fine day," said Pat.

No answer.

"I said it's a fine day," repeated Pat.

"Don't talk to me," said the stranger.

"And for why shouldn't I talk to you?" queried Paddy.

"I'm a commercial traveller from London," was the response.

"Oh! indeed," said Pat, "I didn't know that. I beg your pardon. I didn't mean any harm."

Silence followed.

On arriving at Brighton the men went their different ways, but the Londoner, while walking on the seashore with a friend, spotted his fellow-traveller of the morning.

"Wait a minute," said he to his friend, "and see me take a rise out of this Irishman."

"Good afternoon, Pat," says he, addressing the Irishman, "can you tell me what those things are?"

"Which things?" queried Pat.

"Those things," said the Londoner, pointing to a couple of donkeys ambling along the shore.

"Av course I can," says Pat.

"Well, what are they?" was the query.

"And don't ye know?" said Paddy, "sure they're commercial travellers from London."

The discomfited Londoner was glad to beat to retreat.
