FENCE TALK No. 5

Page Fences have "high-carbon" horizontal 9-gauge wire. Other fences have only "hard drawn" wire.

High-carbon wire is harder, tougher, and far stronger—from a third to a half as strong again—stands 2,400 lbs. strain-test. Hard drawn wire is softer, is weaker—stands but 1,800 lbs. strain-test.

Page Fences, because of this extra strength, have ample spring in reserve to hold a long panel tight and sagless with fewer posts by a third. Other fences thus lack springiness, need three posts to Page Fence's two and then sag and give.

Page Fence uprights are fastened to horizontals by a positive lock, clinched so tightly as to make a solid joint that cannot work loose nor slip—even under the severest strain. But the intersecting wires are not injured. Other fences half-fasten the crossing wires together with a mere twist of wire that will slip. Some use locks that dent and weaken the wire.

These are the reasons why Page Fences cost less and wear best, because they need a third less posts and a third less labor to erect, and yet make a tighter, sightlier, sag-proof and more enduring fencing. Go by the book—it tells all about every style of Page Fences and shows how to prove fence-value before you buy. Ask for it (it's free) from Page Wire Fence Co., Ltd., Walkerville, Toronto, Montreal, St. John, Vancouver, Victoria.

ROOFING

Nothing under the sun has to stand such severe tests as a roofing. Therefore, you should look for quality and permanency first.

It is easy to buy ordinary materials and make roofing that looks as good as PAROID, but it takes many years of roofing experience to learn how to make the kind of felt, saturation and coating—a complete roofing—that will last as long as PAROID under all climatic conditions.

PAROID is backed by our paper manufacturing experience of 92 years.

You run no risks with PAROID ROOFING because it has stood the test of time. PAROID is proof against water, cold, heat and wind, and it also resists fire. Ask the man near you who has used PAROID for his opinion of it, or the dealer who has been selling it for years to satisfied customers.

PAROID ROOFING

Write for free plan book "Practical Farm Buildings," and sample of PAROID ROOFING. PAROID is sold by dealers everywhere. Branch Office F. W. BIRD & SON, Dept. 111 Hamilton, Ont. Winnipeg, Man. If you require only a temporary roofing ask about NEPONSET RED ROPE ROOFING
