The carriage in which His Grace drove was given for the occasion by Mr. George Cooke of Montreal. Next day (Saturday) the candidates for confirmation were examined. His Grace was charmed with the appearance and clever and greatest credit on the pastor and people. Not only were the forms of prayer and responses to the cate children, which reflected the greatest credit on the pastor and people. Not only were the forms of prayer and responses to the cate children displayed a deep knowledge of the sense and meaning of Catholic teaching. On Sunday Borning at 10 o'clock High Mass Coram Postifics was chanted by the rev, pas-tor. The day being an eventful one for the Catholics of the parish, they came from far and near to participate in the services. Standing room was at a premium an hour before the time anhounced for the beginning of the ser-vices and a noticeable feature was the presence of a large number of the non-Catholic portion of the community. The altar has been pretity decorated in honor (f the event, and the music during the Holy Sacrifice was of the services, Miss Hickey. After Mass and the administration of the organist,

MCGIVNEY-FITZPATRICK.

Ist December. MCGIVNEY-FITZPATRICK. A very pleasant event occurred in Arthur village on the 25th ult. On the imorning of that day William, son of Mr. John McGivney, and Mary, daughter of Mr. Patrick Fitzpatrick, all of Luther township, were joined in holy wed-lock by Rev. Father Doherty. The grooms-man and bridesmaid were respectively Mr. John Fitzpatrick, brother of the bride, and Miss Mary McGivney, sister of the groom. The bride was very becomingly dressed in white cashmere, trimmed with white satin and chif-fon, and picture hat of white velvet and tips. The bridesmaid wore a gown of white cash-mere, trimmed with canary -colored satin-After the all important ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the brida's father and sat down to a most appeizing wedding breaktast where "all went merry as a marriago bell." After receiving mang good wishes and congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. McGivney east. The wedding presents were many and and happy and their troubles few and small is the sincer wish of the writer.
