

LOCAL MATTERS OF INTEREST.

SATURDAY

The Deer Island telephone system has been connected at Eastport with the New Brunswick system.

Rev. David Lang of St. Andrew's church lectured last evening before the Guild of St. Stephen's church on the subject, Rome and Athens.

Wm. McCouey, a teamster in the employ of the Ingleswood Pulp Co., was killed yesterday morning at the scene of the company's lumbering operations at Eagle Lake.

A novel wedding took place at Norton on Saturday. The contracting parties were Belgians and could only talk in French.

Rev. R. G. Fulton, the provincial head of the Orange order, preached to the Orangemen of St. Stephen and vicinity on Sunday last.

MONDAY

The Victoria was towed to Indian town by the Majestic yesterday. The Victoria was disabled a few days ago by a log striking her paddle.

On Tuesday night last Arnold's Department Store was entered and its contents taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knowles and Mr. James Knowles left today for Birch Ridge, N. B., to attend the funeral of Mrs. Knowles' sister, Mrs. Thomas Knowles.

John Commins, aged 45 years died at his home 171 Rockland Road, yesterday morning.

John Garden escaped from the Provincial Hospital at Lancaster on Monday and fled into the city.

An alarm was rung in from box 32 shortly after eight o'clock last night.

Manager Gorbell, of the Seaman's Society, yesterday morning addressed the girls at Netherwood school on the subject of the work with which he is identified.

TUESDAY

Chaplain B. H. Thomas does not agree with Rev. J. F. Floyd, pastor of the Coburg street Christian church, who criticised him for saying that Collins died a Christian.

"Replying to Rev. J. F. Floyd, please permit me to repeat my conviction that Collins died a Christian's death."

Hon. H. R. Emerson arrived in the city yesterday from Pittsburg via Boston and New York, and attended a meeting in the afternoon.

THURSDAY

Hon. Dr. Pugsley will leave today with his family to reside in future at Ottawa.

connection was the principal matter before the meeting.

Rev. David Lang of St. Andrew's church lectured last evening before the Guild of St. Stephen's church on the subject, Rome and Athens.

Rev. B. Heyington-Jones visited the Every Young Club last night and highly complimented the members of the singing class on their progress.

Last evening the St. John Concert Company delighted the large audience that crowded Trinity school room to hear the concert given by the company.

The granite workers of St. John have formed themselves into an union, arranging to have a strike on Monday night.

Principal McLean of the Aberdeen School, chairman of the committee which has charge of the forwarding of the teachers' pension scheme, reports favorable progress.

The annual high tea and sale of St. Peter's Church was opened very successfully in the church hall last night.

The wedding of Miss Lena O'Brien and Mr. Clarence Tower will take place on Friday evening at 7 o'clock at 141 Durham street, North End.

The playing of Clarence Eddy, the pianist, was the feature of the large audience which was present at the concert in Centenary church last evening.

A meeting of the committee in connection with the laymen's missionary movement was held last night.

A collision between a street car and a milk wagon on Saturday night resulted in considerable damage to the latter.

Elder William Murray, of the Church of Christ Disciples, died at the home of his son, West Lynn, Mass., Nov. 14, aged 78 years, 9 months and 10 days.

The str. Brunswick, on her way out from Canim, N. S., on Monday, toged to sea the schr. Rescue, loaded with potatoes, bound for the West Indies.

A conversation was held last evening in the schoolroom of Trinity church under the auspices of the Young Women's Guild and the Y. M. C. A.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley will leave today with his family to reside in future at Ottawa.

After having suffered the most excruciating agony since Tuesday morning last, when his hand was burned to a crisp in an accident, John I. Everson, manager of the St. John Bank, Boston, Tripolite Co., had the member amputated at the General Public Hospital here yesterday afternoon.

Shortly after twelve o'clock last night an alarm was sent in from box 124 for a fire in a condemned building on a street between C. Flaveling, Main street. The fire, which did not amount to much, caught from a kitchen range in the rear of the shop.

Harry D. Hipwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hipwell of Woodstock, N. B., who left there for Bellisquam, Washington state, last June, after successfully passing the final examination before the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society, has passed, with high honors, the pharmacy exam.

At Brandon on Tuesday Henry Brown of Toronto was seized out of $400 by three card sharps from Winnipeg. The men were arrested and will be punished.

Daniel McDougall, aged 44, and his wife, were found dead from asphyxiation yesterday morning in Boston. McDougall was a native of Prince Edward Island.

H. S. Pike, C. L. McComber and Thos. Tracey, American hunters, were fined $25 each at Chatham for entering the woods without a registered license. They were also fined $100 for killing a calf mouse.

Among those successful in their final honors at Oxford in examination for B. C. L. and second class Littoral Humanities are: L. Brehaut, P. E. L. E. R. Patterson, Ontario; J. McCreary, Manitoba; In Jurisdiction, S. M. Herbert, of Newfoundland; J. Archibald, of Quebec; and C. B. Martin, of New Brunswick.

Miss Marjorie E. MacMunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacMunn of Norwood, Mass., was married to Raymond G. Witman by Rev. Dr. P. Owen Jones, rector of Grace Episcopal Mission, at the home of the bride on Thursday last.

The marriage of Miss Olive Thraeber Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fitch, of Brainerd Grace Ransom, of Toronto, Canada, son of the late Ransom P. Ransom and Mrs. Ella B. Ransom, of Wymong, O., was solemnized at high noon Wednesday, October 26th, in the country home of the bride's parents near Spencertown, N. B.

The marriage of Miss Olive Thraeber Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fitch, of Brainerd Grace Ransom, of Toronto, Canada, son of the late Ransom P. Ransom and Mrs. Ella B. Ransom, of Wymong, O., was solemnized at high noon Wednesday, October 26th, in the country home of the bride's parents near Spencertown, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Craft, of Worcester, Mass., formerly of St. John, announce the marriage of their daughter, Emma Louise Craft, to Winford Fountain McDonald. The ceremony took place on Tuesday, the fifth of November, at Worcester, Mass.

The residence of Mrs. John S. Baird, Upperton, N. B., was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday evening, Nov. 16th, when her daughter, Anna Maria, was united in marriage to Vincent Leslie Faulkner, formerly of Hammond, but recently of Washington.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. Mutch. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, the wedding was a quiet one, being witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her brother, Harvey, and was tastefully veiled in white silk lawn, trimmed with embroidery. She wore a costume of blue, with a high collar and long sleeves, and carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and a parasol. Her only ornament was a gold watch and chain, the gift of the groom.

The high esteem in which the couple are held was shown by the number of costly presents received. The bride was accompanied by her father, formerly of this city, now of Bangor, was married on the 13th inst. to Miss Marnie Stone, daughter of Frank C. Stone, Bangor, Me. The wedding took place in Bangor, where they will reside in future. The bride's mother before leaving for their future home in the west.

BOYD-TATTON.

The marriage of Miss Tatton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Tatton, of Pennfield, to William Boyd, proprietor of the Arden House, St. George, took place at the home of the bride on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. I. Lynds in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride looked charming in a pretty costume of white silk trimmed with lace, and carried a handsome bouquet of white flowers with a few graciously fastened in her hair.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

SMITH-WEBSTER.

The marriage of Frederick Vanwart Smith, of McDonald's Point, Queens county, to Frances Sarah Webster, daughter of William Webster, of Bellisquam, Queens County, took place Monday at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Eldon Stelm of the Waterloo street Baptist Church.

The wedding took place at St. Patrick's Church at 12 o'clock this morning by William Leo Mullins, a well-known young brakeman on the I. C. R., and a popular member of Saint Joseph's P. A. & B. Society, and Miss Mary A. Cady, a popular young lady of the North End.

The bride was accompanied by her sister, the bridesmaid and the groom was attended by her cousin, H. E. Noonan.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

After the ceremony, the newly-wedded couple drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. At 3:25 o'clock they left on the C. P. R. train for St. John, N. B., where they will remain for some time.

The bride wore a tailor-made suit of sea-brown, with hat to match, and her sister wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with a hat in keeping.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy.

What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, Croup, Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.

The Kind You Have Always Bought In Use For Over 30 Years.

numbers of the men are now fitting up for the lumber woods.

McLaughlin Bros. of Mill Cove, who have been engaged in building several bridges on the C. P. R., have returned home for the winter, not being able to complete the last bridge on account of the water reaching such a height.

George Orchard of this place has sold his farm here and removed to Bangor, Maine, where he will reside in the future.

Richard Fox, who has captured the record fox of the season, which weighed 80 lbs, is again on the war-path against these savage animals, which are making great havoc in his poultry yards.

William Crouch of Mill Cove, who has been on a trip to New York, has returned home again.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Gray was held on Sunday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Edge, Lower Hillsboro, and was largely attended.

Mrs. C. J. Oman has returned from a visit at Boston.

Mrs. James Blight returned on Saturday from an extended visit at Providence, R. I., and other American cities.

The death of Robert Anderson, a well known citizen, occurred Monday. He was 71 years of age.

YOUNG'S COVE, N. B., Nov. 22.—Navigation has closed on the Grand Lake for this season.

YOUNG'S COVE, N. B., Nov. 22.—Navigation has closed on the Grand Lake for this season.

FORMER NEW YORK CASHIER UNDER WILL TURN UP

Expected to Give Evidence in His Institution Arc of Larceny and Forgery

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—It was stated tonight by one person interested in the prosecution that former Cashier Arthur D. Campbell of the Borough Bank of Brooklyn, would appear as a witness for the state when cases against other bankers who have had dealings with the Borough Bank were brought to trial.

The grand jury of Kings county, which indicted certain Borough Bank employees, completed its work today and will be discharged Friday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

There are several transactions in connection with the suspension of the Borough Bank which the district attorney has taken up for the grand jury to be taken up by the grand jury on Monday.

WEDDINGS

WITMANS-MacMUNN. Miss Marjorie E. MacMunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacMunn of Norwood, Mass., was married to Raymond G. Witman by Rev. Dr. P. Owen Jones, rector of Grace Episcopal Mission, at the home of the bride on Thursday last.

The marriage of Miss Olive Thraeber Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fitch, of Brainerd Grace Ransom, of Toronto, Canada, son of the late Ransom P. Ransom and Mrs. Ella B. Ransom, of Wymong, O., was solemnized at high noon Wednesday, October 26th, in the country home of the bride's parents near Spencertown, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Craft, of Worcester, Mass., formerly of St. John, announce the marriage of their daughter, Emma Louise Craft, to Winford Fountain McDonald. The ceremony took place on Tuesday, the fifth of November, at Worcester, Mass.

The residence of Mrs. John S. Baird, Upperton, N. B., was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday evening, Nov. 16th, when her daughter, Anna Maria, was united in marriage to Vincent Leslie Faulkner, formerly of Hammond, but recently of Washington.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. Mutch. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, the wedding was a quiet one, being witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her brother, Harvey, and was tastefully veiled in white silk lawn, trimmed with embroidery. She wore a costume of blue, with a high collar and long sleeves, and carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and a parasol.

The high esteem in which the couple are held was shown by the number of costly presents received. The bride was accompanied by her father, formerly of this city, now of Bangor, was married on the 13th inst. to Miss Marnie Stone, daughter of Frank C. Stone, Bangor, Me.

The wedding took place in Bangor, where they will reside in future. The bride's mother before leaving for their future home in the west.

WEDDINGS

WITMANS-MacMUNN. Miss Marjorie E. MacMunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacMunn of Norwood, Mass., was married to Raymond G. Witman by Rev. Dr. P. Owen Jones, rector of Grace Episcopal Mission, at the home of the bride on Thursday last.

The marriage of Miss Olive Thraeber Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fitch, of Brainerd Grace Ransom, of Toronto, Canada, son of the late Ransom P. Ransom and Mrs. Ella B. Ransom, of Wymong, O., was solemnized at high noon Wednesday, October 26th, in the country home of the bride's parents near Spencertown, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Craft, of Worcester, Mass., formerly of St. John, announce the marriage of their daughter, Emma Louise Craft, to Winford Fountain McDonald. The ceremony took place on Tuesday, the fifth of November, at Worcester, Mass.

The residence of Mrs. John S. Baird, Upperton, N. B., was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday evening, Nov. 16th, when her daughter, Anna Maria, was united in marriage to Vincent Leslie Faulkner, formerly of Hammond, but recently of Washington.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. Mutch. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, the wedding was a quiet one, being witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her brother, Harvey, and was tastefully veiled in white silk lawn, trimmed with embroidery. She wore a costume of blue, with a high collar and long sleeves, and carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and a parasol.

The high esteem in which the couple are held was shown by the number of costly presents received. The bride was accompanied by her father, formerly of this city, now of Bangor, was married on the 13th inst. to Miss Marnie Stone, daughter of Frank C. Stone, Bangor, Me.

The wedding took place in Bangor, where they will reside in future. The bride's mother before leaving for their future home in the west.

NEWS OF HILLSBORO

HILLSBORO, Nov. 19.—The death of the seven-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crossman occurred very suddenly yesterday at Niagara, Albion Co.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Gray was held on Sunday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Edge, Lower Hillsboro, and was largely attended.

Mrs. C. J. Oman has returned from a visit at Boston.

Mrs. James Blight returned on Saturday from an extended visit at Providence, R. I., and other American cities.

The death of Robert Anderson, a well known citizen, occurred Monday. He was 71 years of age.

YOUNG'S COVE, N. B., Nov. 22.—Navigation has closed on the Grand Lake for this season.

YOUNG'S COVE, N. B., Nov. 22.—Navigation has closed on the Grand Lake for this season.

YOUNG'S COVE, N. B., Nov. 22.—Navigation has closed on the Grand Lake for this season.

YOUNG'S COVE, N. B., Nov. 22.—Navigation has closed on the Grand Lake for this season.

AMERICAN HUNTERS

FINED HEAVILY FOR DISOBEYING GAME RULES

CHATHAM, N. B., Nov. 20.—Three American hunters were fined $175 and costs a total of over $200, this afternoon in the police court by Magistrate Connors.

H. S. Pike, C. L. McComber and Thomas Tracy were the names given, and each was fined $25 for entering the woods without a registered gun, as they are non-residents. Tracy was also fined $100 for killing a calf mouse.

NEWCASTLE, Nov. 20.—The announcement was made here today that the Baird & Peters Co., Ltd., had purchased the wholesale business of James A. Rundle of this place.

It is the intention of the Baird & Peters Co. to carry on the business on a larger scale than formerly. They will handle a full line of groceries as well as four and five.

P. E. Dennison will have a general sale of the contents of the branches at Newcastle and Chatham.

Mr. Rundle was one of the oldest and most prominent merchants of Newcastle. He enjoyed the esteem and patronage of the business people in all parts of the Miramichi. Mr. Rundle will devote his time in the future to the lumber industry.

BIRTHS. KIBBERSTEAD—In this city, on the 19th inst., to the wife of Arthur Kibberstead, twin girls.

MORELL—In this city, on Nov. 15th, to the wife of M. D. Morell, a son.

ELKIN—In this city, November 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Elkin, a daughter.

MARRIAGES. MOFFAT-MCKENZIE—At the residence of the bride's father, The Head, Campbellton, N. B., May, only daughter of John Moffat, to John B. McKenzie, M. D., C. M., of Loggieville, N. B.

WANTED. MEN WANTED—Reliable men in every locality throughout Canada to advertise our goods. Back up shipments on credit. No experience necessary. Write for particulars. EMPIRE MEDICINE CO., London, Ont.

WANTED AT ONCE on salary and expenses, one good man in each locality with rig, or capable of handling horses, to advertise and introduce our guaranteed brand of individual specific. No experience necessary. We pay out your work for you. $25 a week and expenses. Position permanent. Write W. A. JENKINS MANUFACTURING CO., London, Ont. 15-144

MISCELLANEOUS. WANTED—Homesekers' attention. If you want a farm home in British Columbia, drop a postal card for all particulars of our club plan. DOMINION HOMESSEKERS' ASSOCIATION, LTD., Vancouver, B. C.

W. H. Thorne Market Square