BILLIARDISTS RAISE $78.00 FOR DISASTER FUND

Recently The Daily Mail announced that the T. A. billiardists would call off their dinner this year and donate the proceeds to the Sealing Disaster Fund.

Last night the players met and the sum of $78.40 was realized for the fund.

This amount will likely be augmented.

PRIZE DEBATE AT ST. BON'S COLLEGE

The annual prize debate by the pupils of St. Bon's College, took place at the Aula Maxima yesterday afternoon.

The subject was: Resolved, that a Republic is a better form of Government than a limited Monarchy.

The speakers were H. Knight, W. Brown and N. Duchemin for the affirmative, and G. Badoock, Wm. McGrath and Wilfred McGrath for the negative.

The various speakers put up their arguments in a very clever manner. The judges consisted of Rt. Rev. Mons. Roche, Chairman; Revs. Dr. Greene, Fr. Sears, Fr. Pippy, Fr. McCarthy (Willes Bay), Bros. Ryan, Kennedy, and Messrs. V. P. Burke and C. H. Hutton.

The negatives, or those who favored limited monarchy, were declared the winners.

N. Duchemin was considered the best debater and won the gold medal.

C.E.L. ATHLETES.

The annual meeting of the C.E.L. Athletic Association was held at the Institute last night, Mr. T. Hallett presiding.

The Association is in a very healthy condition, and the coming season's prospects are exceptionally bright.

Mr. Warwick Smith conducted the election of officers which resulted as follows:

President—Mr. Thos. Hallett.
Vice-Pres.—Mr. F. F. Harris.
Secretary—Mr. W. A. H. Long.
Treasurer—Mr. Gordon Pike.
Football Capt.—Mr. E. Fox.
Football Vice-Capt.—Mr. H. Churchill.
League Delegate—Mr. C. E. Hunt.

The following are a selecting committee for football—Messrs. E. Fox, M. Churchill, L. Stick and R. Stick.
Regatta Committee—Messrs. T. Hallett and R. Stick.

THE LATEST APPOINTMENT.

Mr. George Power is receiving the congratulations of his friends on his appointment to the vacancy at the Poor Commissioner's office caused by the death of Mr. E. Rawlins.

It is said that the heads of that department are not in favor of the appointment as they preferred others.

NICKEL CROWDED; A FINE PROGRAMME.

The Nickel Theatre continues to be the popular resort these evenings. Last night in spite of the wind storm, the building was well filled and seats were at a premium.

The programme opened with the two reel feature story entitled "The Battle of Bloody Ford." It is by the Kalem Co., being a spectacular civil war production. The story is rich in genuine thrills, and is one of the best war pictures ever seen in St. John's.

"Master and Man" is an attractive social drama which had many admirers. A burglar is caught in the act, but makes good, and shows his appreciation by taking the blame of a crime of which he is innocent.

"The Artist's Romance" shows the popular movie actor, Arthur Johnson, in a pleasing role.

"San Xavier Mission" at Tuscan, Arizona, shows the magnificent buildings, the good nuns and the children in their care.

Mr. Walter McCarthy sang a pretty Irish song which was listened to with attention by all.

Miss Gardner repeated her novelty song "How long have you been married," which was again warmly applauded.

To-day the pictures are being repeated and all patrons should attend or they will miss a good show.

HYMENEAL.

Garland-Mahar.
Miss Sadie Garland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Garland, Bond Street, and Mr. John P. Mahar, of the Newfoundland Trading Co., were united in the silken bonds of matrimony at the R. C. Cathedral yesterday afternoon.

The bride who was very prettily attired was attended by her sisters, Misses Priscilla and May Garland, while Mr. J. J. Mahoney supported the groom.

After the ceremony the party drove to Donovan's where supper was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahar are very well-known in the city and are the recipients of a large number of presents.

The Mail joins with other friends in extending congratulations.

AN EDUCATIONAL STORY.

Those who have seen the "Last Days of Pompeii," now being shown at the Casino Theatre, speak in the highest terms of it.

They say it is one of the best educational stories they ever saw and compares favorably with Quo Vadis.

The fact that it cost over $200,000 to produce, and employed such a large number of people makes it one worth seeing.

S.S. Nascopie arrived at North Sydney at 2 p.m. yesterday to load coal for Crosbie & Co. The run to Sydney occupied 47 hours.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY.

The quarterly meeting of St. Andrew's Society takes place at their rooms this evening at 8.30.

REQUIEM MASS AT TORBAY

Requiem Mass was celebrated at Torbay Tuesday for the repose of the soul of the late Patrick Gosse, one of the victims of the Newfoundland disaster.

Rev. Fr. Gough was celebrant, assisted by Revs. Pippy and Rawlins, as deacon and sub-deacon.

Rt. Rev. Mons. Roche and Frs. McDermott and McGrath were also present.

The Monsignor in his discourse made touching reference to the sad calamity and impressed upon the congregation to help make the burdens of those who are left to mourn as light as possible.

The service was most impressive and the congregation was visibly affected.

Capt. T. Bonis arrived by the accommodation train to-day from Trinity Bay.

Mr. J. G. Stone, M.H.A. for Trinity Bay, arrived by the accommodation train this morning and will remain a few days.

BOGUS COLLECTORS

A gentleman residing on Bannerman Street informs The Mail that a girl about 16 years old, dressed in blue, called at his house yesterday, soliciting money for the Disaster Fund.

When asked for whom she was collecting she said the Mercy Convent nuns.

Our informant has a daughter attending the Convent, and the matter was brought under the notice of the superioress, who stated that the collector had no authority whatever to use the name of the nuns or the convent.

People are warned not to give subscriptions to unknown persons. The names of the city collectors have all been published by the papers, and no others are authorized to collect.

TEACHING TOMMY.

"Where's Tommy?" asked Mr. Jones, on his return from business one evening.

"Gone to bed," was his wife's reply. "I hope he's not ill."

"No, I sent him to bed as a punishment for swearing."

"Swearing?" repeated Jones; "I'll teach him to swear."

Without waiting for a light the angry father rushed upstairs to interview the culprit, only to fall over a loose stair-rod and bump his chin.

At once he became exceedingly fluent, and when the air had cleared he heard his wife call, gently:

"Better come down, dear; I'm sure Tommy has heard enough for his first lesson."
