Boy Knight Notes

The last week has been a very busy one.

Two church parades were held on Sunday, one of the First Baptist and in the evening when a goodly number of boys turned out, and enjoyed the splendid service that was rendered. Mr. Taylor Slater, Toronto, W. Peirce Woodstock, Mr. Thompson of the city Y. M. C. A. assisted at the service which was conducted by the pastor.

Rev. L. Brown will give an illustrated lecture on Japan at the Boy Knight's armories next Friday evening to which all are invited.

Many thanks are due to Mr. Ed. Hopkins for the gift of poles for swings for the play ground, these will be much appreciated by the children who will make use of the grounds during the summer season.

The concert on Friday evening was quite a success. Master Cecil Monkman sang a solo in good style, Miss L. Sterne gave a fine recitation and Mr. Harry Eastbrook contributed two monologues in comic costume. Harry is always a favorite with the boys but his efforts on this occasion surpassed all previous ones. Solos and recitations were also rendered by Philip Monkman, Doris Sterne, Mamie McDonald, Vera Reynolds, Miss Lecker and others. Display work by W. Cleve, G. Gillen, Sergt. Heit E. Williams, B. Knowles, A. Willis and H. Cookland.

A large number of new members were added during the week.

Considerable excitement was in the air Tuesday evening over the election and the marking of ballots and their counting was something of a new experience for the boys. As a result the following B. K's were elected to look after the two junior soft ball teams: Earl Johnson, Boyce Jagguden, Burnett Knowles and Jack Stewart all of whom are excellent and if they get sleepy live ones will wake them up. An interesting game was played between Ham and Nettis and the B. K. on Saturday afternoon at Greenwood. Results, 19 to 17 in favor of the Ham and Nett team, both did good work. A card was received from Rev. Mr. Buck during the week. He has been busy at work stirring up things in Boston and New York.

The next month will see the busiest part of the year for us, so we will all have to get ready.

At Johnson corner Oklahoma outflow, now a state political figure, was baptized in a suburb of Los Angeles by Rev. John H. Troy.

ORR WON THE REVILLE SHIELD ON SATURDAY

It is always a satisfaction to all concerned when a competition is won by a good golfer, with a good score. On Saturday afternoon Mr. Orr demonstrated beyond doubt that he is one of the soundest players of the "great game" that has ever been enrolled as a regular member of the Brantford Golf Club. Playing Mr. Powers in the final for "The Canadian Golfer shield" presented by Mr. R. H. Reville, he won out handsomely with the score of 89 and 96 for the two rounds, which we are inclined to believe is the best gross score ever made in a club competition in this club. Furthermore he lifted the June cup, presented by Mr. Percy Thornton and annexed first prize presented by Mr. C. J. Harris, for those handicapped up to 4 strokes. Thus practically sweeping the board for the day and we heartily congratulate Mr. Orr on his well-merited success.

Other prize winners were Mr. D.S. Large who was second to Mr. Orr in the first flight competition. Mr. H. R. Yates won the first prize for second flight with Mr. Webling second. Mr. Bruce Gordon won the third flight. Mr. W. G. Raymond winning the second prize.

There were twenty-eight competitors and the result added materially to the Hospital fund, for which a small entry fee was charged.

Soft Ball

A very fast game was played at the Collegiate Institute grounds Saturday afternoon between the Grace Church boy scouts and the Grace Church Lads Brigade. The Church Lads got away with the game by a score of 24 to 21. The batteries were:

Scouts—Woolams, Beckett and Bony and Woolams.

Church Lads—Hall and Hutton.

Obituary

The sudden death occurred on Saturday in Fort Arthur of Mrs. Bough, widow of the late Levi Boughton. The deceased who formerly resided at 102 Nelson street and had lived in and around Brantford for forty-five years, left here last fall to live with her daughter, Mrs. Harry T. Cole. She was well known here and highly respected. She leaves to mourn her loss three daughters and one son, Mrs. George T. Irwin, Connecticut; Mrs. Cole, Fort Arthur; Mrs. H. T. Cole.

ISAAC JAMES GOULD
Uxbridge, June 7.—Isaac James Gould, former member of the House of Commons and the Ontario Legislature for North Ontario, and one of the foremost men in the country, died on Sunday aged 73 years. Mr. Gould was born in Uxbridge, and the history of the town and the story of his life are practically synonymous.

He started in his business life there, and besides conducting a farming business also carried on a private bank until about ten years ago, when he retired from active business, although still holding many financial interests. One of these is the Uxbridge electric light plant.

Besides his wife, who was Rebecca Chapman of Uxbridge, two sons and five daughters survive.

Deceased was a brother of Mrs. Thos. Watt of this city, and Messrs. E. C. Gould and Harold Gould, who also reside here, are nephews.

Social and Personal

The Courier is always pleased to use items of personal interest. Phone 276.

Mr. Thomas Convery is spending the week in Sudbury and Copper Cliff.

Mrs. Murray E. Steele, N.Y., and Herbert Chrysler of Toronto, spent the week-end as the guests of Mrs. Chrysler, Albion St.

Capt. W. H. Irvine, A.M.C., and Major H. A. Kingsmill, A. M. C., of London, spent the week-end in the city.

Messrs Churchill and J. Harris left for the California Exposition, where they will spend a most enjoyable vacation.

The many friends of Mrs. James Mounce, Darling street, will be sorry to hear that she has been removed to the Brantford Sanatorium Hospital, having never recovered her health from the shock received in the death of her only son, Leslie.

Rose Day Was Big Success

The headquarters on Colborne St. kiddily leaned by Mr. A. H. Tremains, in connection with the "Rose Day" campaign of the Women's Hospital Aid, constituted a busy scene to-day when the heads of districts, members of the finance committee and the officers were busily engaged counting the contents of the boxes, nearly four hundred in all. The system employed was most effective, each box having a number with the name of somebody responsible therefor, and the dime that could escape such a scrutiny had not been minted up to the time of going to press.

Police stood guard at the door, for the welfare of money thus valiantly earned, was not to be lightly jeopardized.

At a late hour this afternoon, the counting was still taking place with nothing definite to report except a noise which had the sound of about $2000. Manufacturing firms contributed some $500, Paris $80, the centre of the Women's Hospital Aid, and so on, but the details will not be given out until later. One young lady turned in a box with $25, and not a bill to help swell the total at that. The county was the fore as never previously, and the all round indications are excellent.

FLEEING SOLDIERS.

"Tommy" Has to Pay Exorbitant Prices.

"Tommy," generally speaking, may be trusted to look after himself. He is not the green, unsophisticated gentleman some people imagine him to be, although his characteristic open-heartedness and generosity sometimes leads him to place too much reliance on the tales of strangers.

There are, however, certain witty jackals in the towns and neighborhoods of camps who fleece our soldier-boys by tricks which should be exposed as much as possible. In the first place, the strongest protest should be made against the manner in which soldiers are overcharged by boarding-house keepers and hotels. Three-pence for a cup of butter and a glass of beer; 1s. 6d. for eggs or toast; 2s. 6d. for a cut of the joint and vegetables—these are a few of the extortionate prices which "Tommy" is asked to pay by grasping people whom he is forced to rely upon at times for anything extra in the way of food.

In some garrison towns small hotels and boarding-houses are taking every advantage of the overcrowding which creates such a demand for sleeping accommodation. Quite fourth-rate hotels are charging 3s. 3d. and 3s. 10s. a week for single bedrooms, simply because they can get it.

The worst type of soldier shark, however, are the keepers and decoys of the night clubs which have sprung up in such large numbers in London and some of the provincial towns. Many an officer or private who has returned from the trenches for two or three days' leave has been inveigled into one of these clubs and gone back not only poorer of every coin he possessed but in fear of the blackmail.

A favorite trick is for one of the women who frequent these clubs, to make up an acquaintance with a soldier visitor, to ask him to take care of her purse and articles of jewellery while she dances. The soldier in nine cases out of ten, acquiesces and is amazed a short time afterwards, when he is suddenly accused by the woman herself of stealing her purse and jewellery. It is little use him telling the story of taking care of them, for it is gone when a promptly ridiculed, and the affair generally ends in the soldier, particularly if he is an officer, paying so much hush-money to avoid any further trouble or scandal.

Armies Defeated by Weather.

The weather has often served Britain well in times of war. We all know how the weather finished the destruction of the Armada, and served us when the French invaded Ireland, and there have been other times when a fog, mist or rain in the British shores, found his work rendered difficult by bad weather. A heavy thunderstorm at Crece slackened the bow strings of the Genoese archers of the English, and the English kept their bows cased, and suffered nothing; and, to come to modern times, the Devons made their famous charge at Wagon Hill, Ladysmith, with a thunderstorm at their back.

Respectable Origin.

The Prince of Wales is becoming more and more enthusiastic over his arduous duties at the front, and in spite of his high position he is not avoiding extreme hardship and danger.

Those who know the prince intimately say that he is as fond of a joke now as he was when he was a little boy—and in his nursery days his quaint sayings were proverbial in the royal family.

The late King Edward used to tell the following story. The King asked the little prince what part of history he was then studying.

"All about Perkin Warbeck," replied his Royal Highness.

"And who was he?" inquired his Majesty, anxious to test his grandson's knowledge.

"Oh," answered the prince, "he pretended he was the son of a king; but he wasn't. He was the son of respectable parents!"

Served Eton; ans 92 Years.

Thomas Line, the college butler and verrier at Eton, is retiring owing to the infirmity of old age. He has been in service at Eton for 62 years and has held his present position for the past 32 years.

When King Edward and Queen Alexandra last visited Eton, his Majesty spoke to Line under the Clock Tower, and inquired how long he had been at Eton, remarking, when the butler answered that he had been at Eton for 62 years, "You are a very old man. He is in his 75th year, and his wife is still living."

Recruiting Bands.

Six hundred pounds a week is being spent by the fund providing bands for recruits in London. Recently it was decided at a meeting at the Mansion House to expend up to 10 per cent. of the money collected to provide grants to provincial bands. London has now eleven bands.

B. C. Timber Industry.

The annual cut of British Columbia timber is approximately two billion feet. There are 420 mills and 790 logging camps in the province, employing about 60,000 men.

Thomas F. Winslow burglar revealed his presence in a Philadelphia home by sneezing under the bed and was arrested.
