WON CUP

In the finals for the silver cup presented by the President, Mr. C. A. Waterous, Mr. H. McKay defeated Mr. N. D. Neill, after an interesting contest.

FOR MAYOR

"You can say definitely that I will run for Mayor in January," said Ald. Minshall to a Courier man this morning. "In fact, I am asking for votes now, and the prospects look good."

STILL IN HOSPITAL

Major Hicks, who left this city with the 58th Battalion as captain, writes that he is still in hospital in England. He was wounded during the fierce attack for the re-taking of Canadian guns, and has not since made a complete recovery. When he is convalescent he will be accorded a trip home.

PASSED AWAY

The death took place last week in New York, of Mr. Jack Salter, the third son of Canon Salter, for many years rector of St. Jude's church, this city. Deceased, who was unmarried, ran a ranch in Saskatchewan together with his brother. Not feeling well, he went to New York for expert advice and passed away in a hospital there. While in the city he was a clerk in Blackader's drug store. He left here for the West a great many years ago, and will be remembered by old-time residents.

WESLEY EPWORTH LEAGUE

Mr. George Wedlake was the speaker at the regular weekly meeting of Wesley Epworth League. He discussed the very important subject of "Missions." His address was most interesting and instructive. Miss Mina Phillips read the lesson, Miss Mae Wood presided. During the next two months the league is conducting a contest for new members, the captains of the two teams being Miss Mina Phillips and Miss Blanche Graham. The rivalry between the two teams promises to be lively, and the success of the crusade for new members is assured.

CAN WALK

"Bill" Moffat, the quarterback of the B. C. I. Rugby team, who suffered an injury to his ankle in Saturday's game, was so far recovered today as to be able to walk with the assistance of a cane.

METERS FOR CHURCHES

At a meeting of the Water Commissioners yesterday, the duties of the inspector of services were defined. It was also decided that all water services for churches be metered, both for lawns and inside services.

PATRIOTIC ASSOCIATION

At the regular meeting of the Factories' Patriotic Association, a deputa-tion was heard regarding help for the British Red Cross Fund. It was decided to send envelopes to factory employees for donations.

A WARNING

Chief of Police Chas. Slemia wishes to inform the merchants having stores on the main streets, that the practice of leaving nails and other articles on the streets after unpacking goods, must be discontinued. Much unnecessary damage has been done to automobile and bicycle tires from this source.

OBTAINED RELICS

Mr. Richard Sanderson, accompanied by ex-Warden John Douglas of Onondaga, visited Ancaster township in search of Indian relics for the Ayrian society of Brantford. They were successful in securing two old French signet rings, bracelets, one large bird amulet, beads and some wampum.

INFORMAL GATHERING

A pleasant informal gathering of the ladies of Brant Avenue Church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. S. Brewster, 55 Chestnut Avenue, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the church. During the course of the afternoon, arrangements were made to assist in the coming campaign for funds on behalf of the British Red Cross Society. Christmas socks for the soldiers were also distributed to about sixty-five ladies who were present.

CALVARY CHURCH

Calvary Church enjoyed a profitable Sunday. Rev. W. E. Bowyer, the pastor, preached at both services. The morning theme was "Strength and Beauty in the Sanctuary," in which was presented the idea that strength is not merely of muscles and sinews, nor beauty, or that of outward appearance, but there are to be found in the cultivation of a Christian character. The evening subject was "Chaining and Taming the Wild Beast." Reference was made to the Ontario Temperance act, and how it had checked drunkenness. There are uncontrollable passions that rage in the nature of men, and wreck their lives. These are subdued and conquered by the power of God through Jesus Christ. During the day the choir, Miss Bertha Sayles and Mrs. R. H. Martin rendered appropriate and appreciated selections of music.

POLICE COURT

The Grant Spring Brewing Company, the Hamilton Brewing Association and the Carling Brewing Company were this morning charged in the police court with selling liquor for re-sale. Alex. Howarth, M. E. Mitchell and John A. Hartman, local hotelkeepers were charged with selling intoxicating liquor. All six cases were adjourned one week.

The charges preferred against John Milton and the Labatt Brewing Company were withdrawn and Mr. William Fraser received a further remand of one week.

The auto owners' association, on an old charge of breach of the license by-law, was fined $25 and costs of $2.85.

and a righteous cause, and for what better cause could a man fight. One thing has disappointed many of us, that we are not going to be allowed any more passes, and that is kind of hard on a fellow who has parents or a wife over here, but we keep smiling and pack all our troubles in our old kit bag as the song says. We are picked to go from here, although there are senior battalions to us, because Sam considered us one of the best battalions in camp. Tomorrow we change our leather equipment for the Webb outfit, also get our pay books and teeth fixed. We're a busy bunch just now all right. Dr. Quartermaster, Orderly room, all working hard. I guess this address will find me alright, but as soon as I know what battalion and division we're going to join I'll let you have it. The regimental number will remain the same. Are the boys still joining up in good old Brantford? Tell them to keep up the good record of the past. So you're to have the 215th with you all winter. That's a good thing. Do you know if they're coming over in spring. The war news is keeping satisfactory lately, but it's a long way before the end yet, I'm afraid. Guess you've read the munition workers here had a few days' holidays. That shows

GERMAN SEA-PLANE

Is Destroyed Off the Belgian Coast.

London, Oct. 24—A British naval aeroplane on October 23 attacked four German seaplanes over the Belgian coast and succeeded in destroying one of the machines and chasing the others away, according to an announcement made by the British admiralty today.

The text of the statement says:

"On the afternoon of October 23, a naval aeroplane attacked four enemy seaplanes off Ostend. Our machine was under fire from all four seaplanes but succeeded in bringing down one which was completely destroyed and in driving off the others."
