The death occurred at Charlottetown, P. E. Island, on Sunday June 24th, of Dr. Edward S. Blanchard, Superintendent of Falconwood Hospital, aged 68.
Some three years ago he was seriously ill with pneumonia from which attack he never fully recovered. The late Dr. Blanchard was a son of the late Judge Blanchard of Kentville studied here and graduated at the same time as Dr. W. B. Moore and spent the greater part of his life in Charlottetown.
He was a quiet, unassuming gentleman, with many excellent qualities, and those who enjoyed his acquaintance entertained for him a high and well merited regard. Indeed all who came in contact with him, highly respected Dr. Blanchard for his affable manner and professional worth. He is survived by his widow and a son and daughter, Mrs.
George Mahon, of Halifax, and Lieut.
Sterling Blanchard, of the 105th Battalion, now in England. Mrs. P. Giffins of this town is a cousin of deceased.

In the Province of Saskatchewan last Tuesday the Liberal Provincial Government won a sweeping victory winning with immense majorities and will have a majority of members of about 40.
