"Nay, boy, rid thy mind o' that. If ye were to hear of his crime ye'd never know it was thy father's."

"It is a bitter sorrow, but I shall make the best of it," said Trove.

"Aye, make the best of it. Thou'rt now in the deep sea, an' God guide

"But I ask your help. Will you read that?" said Trove, handing him the mysterious note that came with the roll of money.

"An' how much came with it?" said Darrel as he read the lines.
"Three thousand dollars. Here they are. I do not know what to do with "Tis a large sum, an' maybe from thy father," said Darrel, looking down at the money. "Possibly, quite pos-sibly, it is from thy father."

"And what shall I do with the mon-ey? It is cursed. I can make no use

"Ah, boy, of one thing be sure. It is not the stolen money. For many years thy father bath been a frugal man, saving, ever saving, the poor fruit of his toil. Nay, boy, if it come o' thy father, have no fear o' that. For a time put thy money in the bank."

"Then my father lives near me, where I may be meeting him every day?" "No," said Darrel, shaking his head. Then lifting his finger and looking into the eyes of Trove he spoke slowly and with deep feeling. "Now that ye know his will, I warn ye, boy, seek him no more. Were ye to meet him now an' know him for thy father an' yet refuse to let him pass I'd think thee a monster o' selfish cruelty."

HE rickety stairway seemed to creak with surprise at the slowness of his feet as Trove descended. It was circus day, and there were few in the street. Neither looking to the right nor left he hurried to the bank of Hillsborough and left his money. Then, mounting his mare, he turned to the wooded hills and went away at a swift gallop. When the village lay far behind them and the sun was low he drew rein to let the mare breathe and turned, look ing down the long stairway of hills, Presently he could hear a galloping horse and a faint halloo down the val-ley out of which he had just come. He stopped, listening, and soon a man and horse, the latter nearly spent with fast travel, came up the pike.

"Well, by heaven! You gave me hard chase," said the man. "Do you wish to see me?" Trove in-

"Yes. My name is Spinnel. I am connected with the bank of Hillsborough. Your name is Trove—Sidney

"Yes, sir."

"You deposited $3,000 today?"
"I did." "Well, I've come to see you and ask a few questions. I've no authority, and you can do as you like about an-pocket.

"First, how came you by that money?" said he, with some show of excitement in his manner.

"That is my business," said Trove

"There's more or less truth in that," said the other. "But I'll explain. Night before last the bank in Mildam was robbed and the clerk, who slept there, badly hurt. Now, I've no doubt you're all right, but here's a curious fact—the sum taken was about $3,000."

Trove began to change color. He dismounted, looking up at the stranger and holding both horses by the bit.

"And they think me a thief?" he demanded.

"No," was the quick reply. "They've no doubt you can are left." no doubt you can explain everything."
"Il tell you all I know about the money," said Trove. "But come, let's keep the horses warm."
They led them, and, walking slowly,

"It's grossly improbable," Trove suggested thoughtfully.
"Well, it ain't the kind o' thing that happens every day or two," said the other. "If you're innocent, you won't mind my looking you over a little to see if you have wounds or weapons. Understand, I've no authority, but if

NO WOMAN CAN BE STRONG AND HEALTHY UNLESS THE KIDNEYS ARE WELL

When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to filter out of the blood are left in the system. Then how important it must be to see to it that this system of sewerage be not clogged up. Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble know not the misery and suffering which those afflicted undergo.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They begin by healing the delicate membranes of the kidneys and thus make their action regular and natural.

They help the kidneys to flush off the acrid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and all the urinary passages.

Doan's Kidney Pills are entirely vegetable, and may be safely taken by young and old. Let Doan's Kidney Pills do for you what they have done for thousands of others, that is, cure you. Mrs. John Young, Harwood, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with my kidneys for some time and my back was so lame I could scarcely get around. After using two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I am completly cured. I find there is nothing like them for the cure of all kidney troubles."

PILGRIMAGE OF PEACE.

W. T. Stead Proposes An International Procession to The Hague.

Rome, Jan. 14.—William T. Stead, Rome, Jan. 14.—William T. Stead, in his international peace propaganda, proposes an international pilgrimage of peace, in which notabilities from all over the world would take part, to start from the United States for The Hague, by way of London, Paris and Rome, and to arrive at the Netherlands capital at the time the second peace conference assembles there.

there.

Mr. Stead says he believes that such a pilgrimage would exercise the greatest moral influence ever known.

W. T. Stead had a conference Saturday with Foreign Minister Tittoni, who declared himself in favor of the English editor's peace propaganda, and said that if Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the British Premier, went to The Hague, he probably also would go.

Salt Rheum, Pimples, Erysipelas Ringworm, Shingles, Scald Head, Itching Sores.

All diseases of the skin are more or less directly caused by a bad state of the blood, which produces aerid humors and corrupts

No one can expect to have a clear, bright skin when the blood is in a disordered condition, and the stomach, liver and bowels acting feebly in consequence.

All the above skin diseases, in fact, any disease arising from a bad condition of the blood, are curable by through its wonderful cleansing, purifying powers on the blood, and its renovating action on the system.

Mr A. Squire, Dominion, N.S., tells how he was cured of Salt Rheum. He writes: "For years I suffered with Salt Rheum, and was unable to find a curable remedy out of all the medicines I took, and Physicians consulted. Finally I was urged by a friend to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after a very short space of time I was completely cured. I shall always recommend B.B.B. for such cases, as I consider it an indispensable remedy."
