Magistrate—to prisoner—If you were there for no dishonest purpose why were you in your stocking feet? Prisoner—I heard there was sickness in the family.

How to Keep Young.

Keep in the sunshine. Avoid excess of all kinds. Eat moderately at regular intervals. Cultivate a spirit of contentment, and keep the bowels regular and liver active by using Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. No treatment is so definite and so satisfactory for this purpose. None so trustworthy and economical.

I noticed, Mr. Lloyd, that you were the only person who did not weep during Mr. Evans' beautiful prayer.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Ferrolin is the pleasing name of the best preparation of Beef, Iron and Wine ever placed on the market. If you or any of your friends are anemic, generally run-down, pallid, easily exhausted, try one bottle of Ferrolin and you will be gratified by the result. $1.00 at druggists.

Two little negro boys were having a row. The insults that were being hurled at each other were finally clinched by the following remark: "You—why you mos' black enough to go naked to a funeral."

Healing Power a Marvel.

No remarkable is the healing power of Dr. Chase's Ointment that is a marvel to persons who witness them for the first time. Mrs. C. Hopkins, St. George, Ont., tells how her son was cured of blood poisoning which started in a wound received at the front. Relief was prompt and cure effected by three boxes.

"A man came to my store the other day," said the chemist, "and handed me seven prescriptions to put up. 'These, I see, are all for the cure of a cold.' I remarked to him casually, 'Yes,' he returned, 'and of them cured my code last winter, but I'd haged if I had rebeber which wud.'"

Have you met with injustice? If so count yourself favored, for so was Christ treated when he came to call men to repentance. If you are derided, falsely accused and injured, then be sure that somewhere in your being you have the golden grain that drives people mad with envy.

A touch of rheumatism, or a twinge of neuralgia, whatever the trouble is, Chamberlain's Liniment drives away the pain at once and cures the complaint quickly. First application gives relief. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.

Rice paddy is brought here from all over Burma. It is floated down the stream to the Irrawaddy River and towed to Rangoon by steamers in rafts and barges. The outstanding is done by East Indian coolies, many of whom are quite pretty young girls.

Father Morrice, the learned priest-physician, realized that many of the difficulties and troubles of the world are due to indigestion. He believed that to get a proper mental and spiritual attitude, a normal digestive apparatus is very helpful. The good Father therefore, gave much study to the important question of the stomach.

His famous prescription, "No. 11" for dyspepsia and indigestion, consists of simple tablets, cleverly compounded from the materials in Nature's laboratory. Each one of them perfectly digests a full meal of 1 1/2 pounds of food.

Father Morrice's "No. 11" has long been used and continued health to thousands of sufferers who had previously tried other remedies in vain. It instantly relieves and in due time restores the stomach to full vigor.

If you suffer at these or regularly from a sick, sour, dyspeptic stomach, try No. 11 and see how quickly you can speedily relieve your misery and how bright the world looks more now.

Life is a well of delights, but when the mob drinks, the fountain is poison.

Who has conceived the full depth of modesty of the vain man? Some men will, but most men are willed.

For the mediocre it is a happiness to be mediocre.

If you are to love your neighbor as yourself you must first of all love yourself.

Freedom is the will to be responsible for one's self.

Liberal institutions cease to be liberal as soon as they are attained.

A minority only is capable of independence.

Those who say 'Virtue is necessary,' really only believe policy to be necessary.

The Christian resolve to find the world evil and ugly has made the world evil and ugly.

Mortality is the herd instinct in the individual.

Love of humanity is practically a preference for the feeble and the suffering.

What is good is easy. Everything divine runs with light feet.

Marriage is a splendid lie; it affirms the eternity of a passion which experience declares to be of all passions the most transient.

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before.

Thousands bleed them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.

The Craze For Change.

After all, happiness is mostly a matter of fancy. We have known individuals and families living miserable lives while surrounded by every condition favorable to enjoyment.

A love of change also accounts for much discontent with farm life. The city appears so bright, so animated, so varied, that life on the farm appears not worth living, while the city man, weary by the constant grind of business, by the mental strain it entails, longs for the country with the pure fresh air, green fields, leisurely mowing, cattle, orchards, and woodlands to be found there.

These things appeal to him as they do not to those who are in constant touch with them. It is ever thus. We despise present blessings and privilege and long for those just beyond our reach, and not until we have left the farm and have some experience of city life do we realize the blessed privilege of having the peace, the freedom and the plenty of farm life.

John D. Rockefeller would go broke if he should spend his entire income trying to prepare a better medicine than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea, dysentery and all bowel complaints. It is simply impossible, and so says every one that has used it. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.

The Sign Board.

I will paint you a sign run-seller. And hang it above your door; A truer and better sign board Than ever you had before.

I will paint with the skill of a master. And many shall pause to see This wonderful piece of painting. So like the reality.

I will paint yourself, run-seller. As you wait for that fair young boy, Just in the moon of manhood. A mother's pride and joy.

He has no thought of stopping; But you greet him with a smile. And you seem so blithe and friendly, That he pauses to chat a while.

I will paint you again run-seller. I will paint you as you stand, With a foaming glass of liquor Held out in either hand.

He wavers, but you urge him. 'Drink! pledge me just this one!' And he lifts the glass and drains it. And the fatal work is done.

Only a few years have flown, But into this loathsome creature The fair young boy has grown.

The work was quick and rapid. I will paint him as he lies In a torpid, drunken slumber, Under the wintry skies.

I will paint the form of a mother As she kneels at her darling's side. Her beautiful boy that was dearer Than all the world beside.

I will paint the shape of a coffin Labeled with one word—'Lost!' I will paint all this run-seller, I will paint it free of cost.

The sin, and the shame, and sorrow. The crime and want and woe. That are born there in your run-shop, No hand can paint you know; But I'll paint you a sign, run-seller, And many shall pause to view This wonderful, swinging sign-board, So terribly, fearfully true.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed, I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieved the ill feeling at once, strengthened the digestive functions, purified the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally.

—Mrs. Rosa Perry, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are sold by Rand's Drug Store.

'I am not much of a mathematician,' said the cigarette, 'but I can add to a youth's nervous troubles. I can subtract from his physical energy. I can multiply his aches and pains. I can divide his mental powers. I can take interest from his work, and discount his chance for success.'

Never hesitate about giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to children. It contains no opium or other narcotics and can be given with implicit confidence. As a quick cure for coughs and colds in which children are susceptible, it is unsurpassed. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.
