Sug.—My attention has been called to a few remarks in the Journal of the 22nd ult., in which you state that your Mr. Knapp has been treated with much incivility at the Post Office in Alberton. Now, as regards Mr. Knapp, or any other man in connection with the Journal of Illing at this office, I have no knowledge. Most likely Mr. Knapp called at the office when I was delivering or making up mail, when I admit no person, for it is stretly-forbidden; and Mr. Knapp should have known this. But if Mr. Knapp says that he was treated with incivility at the delivery window, he states a most feel grateful to Mr. Knapp for laying their grievance so ably before the public; but he did not seem to take into consideration the possible consequences of publishing such a statement, which has for its object the damaging of the Postmaster's reputation.
