MORE ARRESTS IN IRELAND. LONDON, To-day. Indications that the Government hasn't yet completed all the arrests contemplated by it are seen in the aprehension in Dublin, last night, of I . Burke, leading Sinn Feiner County Monaghan. A certain number of Sinn Fein leaders in various districts after the coup was made in Dub-lin, evaded the police who are still on the lookout for them. The authorities are directing their attention to all persons who are regarded as suspicious, and such men are being stopped in the neighborhood of Dublin, and searched. All the best known men, of what is regarded as the revolution ary wing of the Sinn Feiners, are already in custody, but there is a general impression that many influential participants in the conspiracy are persons never heard of by the Irish pub-
