CLEARANCE SALE OF LADIES' BLOUSES

Just a few odd lines of Ladies' Blouses we are clearing at greatly reduced prices to make room for new stock. These Blouses are made in the Latest Styles and from Newest Materials.

Silk, Crepe de Chene and Georgette Crepe.

Selling $3.50 up to $7.50. CALL AND SEE THEM

Sweeping Reductions in Every Department.

That shall Brod Saturday Our Special Sale Day,

will be to you. from across a all?

ample of what I psychical. past the dormit-looking down at me, and yet she tation of that? must have been 40 or 50 feet away. How Did I Know She Was Looking At Me?

How did I know that she was looking at me and that the other girls Cove at 10.30 p.m. yesterday, and is were not? Was it a question of seeing that tiny thing, the pupil of the eye, and knowing that it focused up- Lake last night. on me? Could I have seen anything else as small as that and making so schedule. And how could I tell so unerringly which left this morning, took only that it was focussing on me and not freight, a large amount of which has on something else near me? The Authorman suggested perhaps I could not really tell that: perhaps it was because I was alone d she was looking in my direction that I assumed she was looking at

One Catches the Speaker's Eye.

To confute him, I brought up the

Out Of the Trolly Car Window. Here's another example of the same sort of thing: You are in a trolley car that is moving slowly

Here's an inter- along the street. You glance out idly esting thought - and your eye meets and catches the to me anyway. I eye of some pedestrian. You probabcan only hope it ly withdraw your glance hastily (especially if the other is someone of Isn't the way the opposite sex), but isn't it wondereye meets eye ful that the thing could happen at considerable dis- It seems to me there must be tance, really a something more than physical about wonderful thing? this consciousness of eye meeting Here's an ex- eye-something in some degree

There is no question but that cer-I was walking tain people have psychic powers (I do not mean spiritualistic), of one ory of a girl's kind and another. Does it not seem chool the other day. It was a warm likely that we all have this power in day and several of the girls were at some slight degree, and that the way open windows. I looked up at them eye meets eye, and sometimes carries and I could feel that one of them was with it a message, may be a manifes-

Train Movements.

The incoming express left Arnold's expected to reach the city to-morrow The outgoing express was at Grand

The Carbonear trains are moving on ## Important!

accumulated for there and vicinity.

Every man starting out in business will have to go over a hard road and find out its turnings for himself. But he need not go over his road in the dark if he can take with him the light of other men's experience. DR. F. STAFFORD & SON have way one can tell in a hall when the the experience of supplying all kinds speaker or someone across the hall of Drugs, Patent Medicines, etc., at the dreds of other preparations too num-

Write DR. F. STAFFORD & SON for

Something Cheaper

YOUR GROCER HAS THEM.

We have about 100 cases Oranges selling cheap. First buyer takes them.

Soper & Moore

Wholesale Only. PHONE 480.

GONE FOR KEEPS.

t h e blooming flowers come back in May, the bird to its ac- By customed spray, but money burned comes back no more. Oh. often, when old man of sorrow walks the floor, and

Most things

come back that

away; ship comes sailthinks of joys that cost him dear, of speaker or someone across the hall looks at one, and he admitted that was true.

To return to the main road: Not only could I see that the girl was looking down at me, but when I looked up, our eyes met. That is each sould tell that across 50 feet of space the other's pupil was focussed, not only on her, but on her own tiny pupit!

Isn't that a wonderful thing?

Out of the Trolly Car Window. And there were gay enameled maids who helped him blow his scanty store; their forms come back, from out the shades, and march along in dim parades, but money burned comes back no more. There's nothing sadder 'neath the sky than seeing one whose head is hoar bewailing roubles he made fly, recalling chances with a sigh: and money burned comes back no more. So let us from the weekly wage salt down nine plunks, perchance a score; then we'll enjoy our green old age, if we still loiter on the

SMILE.

The good Lord understood us when he taught us how to smile, He knew we couldn't stand it to be solemn all the while; He knew He'd have to shape us so that when our hearts were gay, in a quick and easy way. So He touched the lips of Adam and He touched the lips of Eve, And He said: "Let these be solemn

But when all is well in Eden and your life seems much worth while, Let your faces wear the glory and the sunlight of a smile.

ing to its shore; They shall know their share of sad- fairly his own ancestor, Oliver Cromness and shall weep their share of tears; forever through the ages men shall prove their faith in Me their hearts are trouble-free." The good Lord understood us when and "spoke of things as they appear-He sent us down to earth, He knew our need for laughter and for happy signs of mirth;

age is here, the He knew we couldn't stand it to be solemn all the while. But must share our joy with others-so He taught us how to smile. Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. Sirs,-I have used your MINARD'S LINIMENT for the past 25 years and whilst I have occasionally used other liniments I can safely say that I have never used any equal to yours. If rubbed between the hands and inhaled frequently, it will never fail to cure cold in the head in 24 hours. It is also the Best for bruises. sprains, etc. Yours 'truly,

J. G. LESLIE. Dartmouth.

Charles the First Beheaded.

On January 30, 1649, at ten o'clock in the morning, Charles the First, King of Great Britain and Ireland, walked across from Saint Jame's Palace to Whitehall, in London, calling on his guard "in a pleasant manner" to walk apace; at two o'clock he stepped through a window of the banqueting house on to the scaffold and spoke to William Juxon, Archbishop of Canterbury, and the others attending him, declaring that he had desired the liberty and freedom of the people as much as any, "but their liberty consists in having from gcvernment those laws by which their life and their goods may be most their own, not in having a share in the government. A subject and a sovereign are two entirely different things." He then declared that he died a member of the Church of England, and after having spoken to Juxon his mysterious word, "Remember," he laid his head upon the block and it was struck off. Thus was We could let our neighbors know it the old rhyme true, that "Charles the First walked and talked; half-anhour afterward his head was cut off"; but which sounds impossible to those not understanding that a semiwhen your sorrows make you colon divides the two lines. But though beheaded, he has since been honoured, as for example by Samuel Rewson Gardiner, who lived from A.D. 1829 till 1912, a graduate and fellow of Oxford, a most trustworthy pass it down throughout the years, in history, so that while treating well, he wrote of Charles the First that he was "honestly anxious to take the right part, and would never the smile upon their faces when for expediency's sake pursue that which he believed to be a wrong one," ed at the time to himself"; and was "never unfaithful to his wife"; and was in personal private life perfectly pure. He is called Charles the Martyr, because he was faithful to the ancient episcopal Church of Eng-> his execution, which continued to be used till A.D. 1858. In 1674 an equestrian statue of Charles the First was erected at Charing Cross. Embroidery in fine wool of Oriental colors takes a simple serge frock out of the commonplace.

land; to the Prayer-book was an-nexed a special service for January

30, beseeching that the nation might not suffer for the sin committed by quarter-length affairs, flaring widely at the hem and dignified of line

Men's SUITS and COATS

20 Per Cent. Discount.

We are now giving a special discount of 20 per cent. on all our Suits and Coats. Beautiful materials, excellent workmanship and a variety of styles and colors that will make your choosing a pleasure. The prices are continually rising and this discount should be a great inducement. A good suit of clothes or a warm, comfortable coat are articles worth having by the dozen. So don't miss this chance.

ars. Th

e night

Milks

deliver nefit of

e frost,

ss sever

nds or nd had to rofare

tern e nd the n

early

were

314 WATER ST.

SLATTERY'S

Wholesale Dry Goods are now offering to the trade the following

English and American Dry Goods. White Curtains.

English Curtain Net. English Art Muslin. White Nainsook. Children's White Dresses Misses' Colored Dresses. Gent's White Handkerchiefs.

Valance Net. White Seersucker. Children's Gingham Dresses.
Ladies' Handkerchiefs.
Gent's Colored Handker. chiefs.

Also a very large assortment of SMALLWARES.

SLATTERY'S DRY GOODS STORE,

Duckworth and George Streets.

MUTT AND JEFF-

JEFF'S A BEAR WHEN IT COMES TO MILITARY STUFF.

By Bud Fisher.

