WHAT a glorious country is the East, where they have no such chilling winds, and cold stormy blasts, to wreck the constitution. But yet, although the climate here is ordered thus, Nature has kindly endowed mankind with the conquering power of welding an all-sufficient weapon against the enemy Disease. Diseases of the throat, lungs, liver, kidneys, digestive organs, &c., are here most prevalent, and for their cure we have nothing to compete with the great Shallop of our Remedy.

Purify the Blood.—If the blood be impure, it cannot be diseased. But if it be in any part of the body any affection, such as a boil or ulcer, even a leprosy, the blood is impure. That fact is a matter of course, and the local affection and its cure is the general system. It is the cause of all diseases, and the cure of all diseases is to purify the blood, and the blood is purified by the use of our Remedy.

Heretofore by Lightning.

COUGHS AND COLDS.

Sudden changes of climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies of ten act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should be had at once to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or "Lozenges." Few are aware of the importance of looking a cough, or "common cold," in its first stage.

That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or "Lozenges," allay irritation, induce coughing, having a direct influence on the affected parts. As there are no irritants, be sure to get the genuine. Sold by all dealers in medicine at 25 cents a box.

TUESDAY EV'G, OCTOBER 1.

Local News.

THE GARAFRAXA FIRE.—We are glad to learn that Messrs. Cassidy & Robertson, will, as soon as possible, commence to rebuild their mill, lately burned down, and put in new machinery.

LACROSSE.—A meeting will be held to-night at Lindsay's Hotel with a view to the organization of a Lacrosse Club. The game, we notice, is becoming extremely popular in Toronto, Hamilton, and some other places.

A BURGLARIOUS attempt was made on the store of Mr. Unger, of Listowel last week, but was unavailing. An inside bar on the door attempted was the means of saving the property.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—The ladies of the above Society, are pleased to state the net proceeds of the Entertainment held at the Drill Shed on the 25th ult., amount to $110.80.—ANNA E. BAKER, Treasurer.

RECEIVED A CALL.—The Rev. Mr. Barrie preached at Rockwood on Wednesday last, and moderated in a call from the Eden Mills and Rockwood Presbyterian congregations to the Rev. Geo. McBeth Milligan to be their pastor. The call was unanimous.

FAILURE OF BUCHANAN, HOPE & CO.—The Hamilton Times says: We deeply regret to have to report the suspension of the old and highly respectable business of Buchanan, Hope & Co., Hamilton. This unfortunate occurrence does not, however, affect the position of the business of Adam Hope & Co., Hamilton, or I. Buchanan & Co., Montreal.

THE Allegonian Bell-Ringers had a full house last night. It was much better than they deserved, for, notwithstanding the opinions they quote as being given by clergymen and the Press, they were not what our citizens were led to expect, and many came away disappointed. With one exception their troupe do not comprise a member worthy of being called a first-class artist. The performance on the bells was fair, the singing but mediocre.

ACCIDENT TO THE REV. K. McDONALD.—Our information in regard to the accident to this gentleman was not strict ly correct. The mishap occurred on Tuesday week, while driving through a very rough field. The wheel of the gig went over a stone or log, and he was thrown out, and his arm broken so that he was unable to take care of his horse, which then ran away. Mr. McDonald was driving slowly at the time of the accident, and looking at the fields instead of paying attention to his horse.

Wellington Assizes.

COURT HOUSE, Monday 30th.

PATTISON & KING AND OTHERS.—Action of ejectment to recover possession of the Glenlivet Distillery, Garafraxa. Winstanley and Guthrie for defendants.

FRANCIS & SWENNEY.—Action on covenant, claiming a balance due plaintiff on the purchase money for land, of $570. Defendant claimed to have paid $100, which, together with interest, would reduce the plaintiff's claim to $552.73. Verdict $552.73. Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff; Mr. McCurry for defendant.

Breach of Promise Case.

TUESDAY, October 1st.

LEIGHTHEAT & KAHNES.—Action for breach of promise of marriage. The plaintiff's name was Eliza Lightheart, and she was a servant in the house in which Kahnès boarded, he being a clerk in a store in the village of Orangeville. An intimacy sprung up between them which terminated criminally, and after some time she informed him that she was pregnant. He said to her, "You need not be concerned, I always intended to do what is right, I will marry you." This was on the 3rd of July, 1862. On the following day, he asked a brother-in-law of the plaintiff to procure a license and bespeak the services of a minister, and on the day after the marriage was appointed, and the party assembled to witness the ceremony, but no bridegroom came, although he was expected until 11 o'clock at night, and consequently there was no wedding. It was not given in evidence, that there was anything more said about the marriage between them, although his actions seemed to have proved that he did not deny the parentage of the child, which died when it was a few months old. But last spring the defendant married another young lady, which so displeased the plaintiff that she brought the action. There was no witness for the defence, but an effort was made to show the girl's character in still darker colours, by making enquiry of the witness concerning a man named Morrow, who had suddenly left Orangeville about the time that defendant was to be married to plaintiff, and some information which the former had received relative to the intercourse of the latter with this person was the alleged reason why he did not marry her. Mr. Harrison, the defendant's counsel, did his best to show the brightest phase of a bad case, and talked some very nice poetry to the jury about the principles which should form the basis of the marriage contract, but his Lordship
