The Puslinch By-law in Aid of the Credit Valley Railway.

We publish in our weekly this week a copy of the Puslinch by law granting a bonus of $10,000 to the Credit Valley Railway. It will be seen that only a section of the Township is asked to vote this bonus, namely, the gore, front and rear, and all that portion of the 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th concessions, lying south of the line between lots numbers 23 and 26. The by-law sufficiently explains itself, and the rate-payers living in the section interested would do well to read carefully its provisions, and seriously to consider the feasibility and advantages of the scheme before they record their votes. The money they will vote away will come out of their own pockets, and it behoves them therefore to consider well what they are doing, and see that they get full value for the amount which the Company asks of them. Above all we would advise them to keep a sharp eye on Mr. Laidlaw, the President of the Company, who is most profuse in his promises before a by-law is carried, but after that is done intrenches himself behind his power of attorney, and snaps his fingers at those who helped to foster up his schemes.

We understand that Mr. Laidlaw schemes. We understand that Mr. Laidlaw will hold meetings at the following places:—At the school house near Killean, on Tuesday, 31st inst., at 4 p.m.; at Kerracher's Inn, Crieft, on the same day, at 6 p.m.: at the School House, Badenoch, on Wednesday, the 1st April, at 4 p.m.; and at the Town Hall, Morriston, the same day, at 8 p.m.

The North Wellington Elections.

The North Wellington Elections.

(To the Editor of the Mercury.)

Sir.—We have had two very exciting elections in this Riding, and I notice by the Mercury that the Drew party are not going to let the first election go past without trying by hook or by crook to upset it. But I think if it goes to a secratiny that Drew will be much farther behind than he expects, for there were many bad votes recorded for him in North Luther which can be proved to be so. Some I know who were assessed for only $150 and $30 voted for Drew and McGowan. On the other hand there were a good many votes lost for Mr. Highibotham in the south end of this township. I have also good reason to believe that our Reeve was aware that the assessment rolls were not right. He took good care that there were no votes of the name of Jackson left of the rolls. There are a good many Jacksons in our Township, and Drew knows how they all vote, and they are all on the voters' list whether or not they have property estilling them to vote.

I can warn our Reeve that he will be well looked after this year. He may try his old game again through the person whom he managed to get in for assessor, and who may cook things up for the local elections next year. But if he does he will be well watched. Such are the means the Tories use to damage the Reform party, but the Reformers in this Township have a sharp eye on them, and I can tell you there will be a good many disfranchised this year, who without proper qualification voted last year. The Reformers, Mr. Editor, in Luther are all right, and they are determined after this to look sharply after their interests, and see that they get fair play in the township.

Yours truly.

LUTHER ELECTOR.

The Humors of the Newspaper Business.—Almost every calling has a special line of humor connected with it. The weaknesses of human nature constantly manifest themselves in the most ridiculous aspects, and to the various occupations different classes of these weaknesses seem to present themselves. To the newspaper publisher it is the self-importance and small vanities of men that make themselves especially conspicuous, and oftenest excite the risibilities of the editorial mind. A letter before us will illustrate. To a certain gentleman in this/county, who was some years in arrears for the Expositor, we sent one or two courteous but unmistakepible dunning letters. He was one of those men who can't stand dunning, and so he writes back: "To-"morrow I willsend yon $3, which is all I owe you. Stop my paper. As a Re-"former I have worked hard for your "paper, but, from this forward, my "lips are sealed." Here is another instance: A certain school teacher, a good enough fellow, too, in his way, had been occasionally sending us items of local news from his vicinity. A few weeks ago, abandoning prosaic records of accidents, soirces and large turnips, he sent us an original poem—an article, under the best of circumstances, the country editor regards with dread. The one in question was not only poor of its bind bar turned in question was not only poor of its bind bar turned in question was not only poor of its bind bar turned in question was not only poor of its bind bar turned the process of acidents and the process of acidents are recorded in question was not only poor of its bind bar turned to the various transfer of the second transfer under the best of circumstances, the country editor regards with dread. The one in question was not only poor of its kind, but unsuitable for our columns, and consequently was not published. The other day we received a letter from the author, from which we extract the following; "Why did you not publish the author, from which we extract the following; "Why did you not publish the property I sent you? I wrote it "myself. If you don't put it in next "week, I will send you no more of the "humble efforts of my pen."—Seaforth Expositor.

The Anti-treating Society of Ottawa

The Anti-treating Society of Ottawa has a counterpart in San Francisco. The New York Sun says:—A society in San Francisco arrays itself against the habit of saying, "What'll you have?"

"Come, let's take a drink!" or anything of that kind. The members do not approve of total abstinence; they only solemnly pledge themselves not to pay for any other man's drink, nor to drink at a bar with anybody. The society is serious in its intention, believes that the convivality of bar-rooms is the cause of most intemperance, and has a membership of standing and influence.

A spaniel named Curly is the regular mail carrier between a settlement called Lake of Two Woods, Dakota, and the Minnesota line twelve miles away. Letters and papers are placed in a sack and tied about the dog's neck; he is told to go, and never fails to reach his destination. Arriving, the mail is overhauled, the faithful servant is treated to a good dinner, and started on his return trip.

"Exaveus! Spran, won have driven me.

"Farewell, Susan—you have driven me to the grave," wrote John Larch, of Alabama, four years ago, and left the mote on the river bank. He was arrested the other day in Cincinnati, living with another woman.
