ST. CATHARINES NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Collins of 25 Pleasant Street celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday at their home. During the day many friends called to offer their felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Collins who have resided in this city for the past 40 years. A reception was held at the A.M.E. Church. The Collins trio composed of members of the family from Oil City, entertained with several musical numbers. The honored guests were married 50 years ago in Lockport, N.Y. Mr. Collins is a Civil War veteran. All children of the couple were present at the celebration including Fred W., John F., and George P. Collins and families of Oil City; Jerome, of Boston; Frank of Canada and Edna of Bradford.

The Quarterly Meeting services were convened in the church. They were well attended. Rev. Logan preached in the morning and Rev. Woodcock of Niagara Falls, Ont in the afternoon and evening.

Among the holiday visitors to our city were Mrs. Williams, of Lockport, and her three daughters, Misses Gertrude, Viola, and Olive; Mr. Leo Dorsey, of Lockport; Mrs. Joseph Dorsey, of Toronto and her two daughters, Marjorie and Ina; Miss Evelyn Thompson, of Lewiston; and Master Leonard Grant of Buffalo, N.Y.

Mr. Frank Collins has arrived home again after spending a very pleasant time in Bradford Pa., at the golden wedding anniversary of the father and mother.

Our revival meetings began on Jan. 6th. Rev. Adams of Buffalo preached in the morning and evening. Rev. S. R. Drake is also with us and we expect to have some very fine services from now until the 20th.

Mr. Joseph Dupree of Buffalo and Mr. Adams of Cleveland were the guests of Misses Louise and Clara Bell.
