It was announced on the Paris oil market Saturday that a large operator was in difficulty. The announcement caused demoralization in the market, and adjournment was taken until Tuesday.

The New York bank statement is somewhat disappointing. The reserve shows a large decrease of $4,000,000 for the week, and the surplus has been reduced to $8,850,000, as against the surplus of $11,400,000, and two years ago $20,143,775.

During the past week on the London Stock Exchange business was restricted and in most departments dull with no symptoms of a revival in speculation. American railroad securities continue neglected and dependent upon New York support.
