—The London Teachers' Association, which meets on Friday, has secured the services of Mr. Wm. Houston, M. A., Toronto, who will deliver a lecture on "Tennyson as an Artist" at the evening session in Victoria Hall, to which the public are cordially invited. It is to be hoped the citizens will show their appreciation of the efforts of the association to promote the love of good literature by a large attendance.

Close of the Flower Show.

The chrysanthemum show in the Queen's Avenue Rink came to a close last night, and to-day the exhibitors are busily engaged removing the brilliant display. The collection of plants from Florida was sold to the highest bidder, and fair prices got for them. Doubtless the most unfavorable weather was a deterrent to a larger patronage, as the attendance was not up to expectations or to what the exhibition deserved.

A letter from Jacksonville, Fla., received to-day announces the safe arrival there of Rev. H. C. Speller and his family, having reached that city on the Thursday evening following the Tuesday on which they left London. The found the roses in bloom, while the thermometer marked 78°. Mr. Speller proceeded to De Land (about 100 miles distant from Jacksonville), where he met with a cordial reception, and at once entered on the duties of his new pastorate.

entered on the duties of his new pastorate. EcImes-Haddon.

On Wednesday evening the residence of Mr. Robert Haddon, Mount Pleasant avenue, London West, was crowded with joyous guests. The occasion of this festive gathering was the marriage of Miss Maggie, Mr. Haddon's eldest daughter, to Mr. Joseph L. Holmes of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. P. Talling, pastor of St. James' Presbyterian Church, of which the young couple are esteemed members. Miss S. Watson was bridesmaid, and, like the bride, was costumed in white and carried beautiful flowers. Mr. Haddon, brother of the bride, supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Helmes, who will reside on Simcoe street, have the best wishes of a large circle of friends, a fact that was shown by the beautiful array of wedding gifts. MARRIAGE LICENSES BERLIN, Nov. 12.—A meeting of Anarchists was held here to-day, at which the Anarchists executed in Chicago for the Haymarket massacre were extolled as "martyrs," and Ravachol, the Anarchist murderer and thief, who suffered death at Paris by the guillotine, was praised as one who had given his life to advocate the cause of universal freedom. All the speakers indulged in rank blasphemies usual at such gatherings. A number of women were present.
