What City Voters Should Do With the Notices They Have Received.

Immediate Attention May Save Them Their Votes.

Readers of the ADVERTISER who have received notice that their votes on the Dominion voters' list are objected to are requested to take their notice and the envelope in which it was sent to the Liberal rooms, Oddfellows' Hall, at once. There steps will be taken to establish the right of the voter attacked if he is found to possess that right.

If the envelope is destroyed, the notice should be taken alone.

The rooms will be open afternoon and evening till the day of holding the Dominion voters' list court. But the notices should be sent in at once, in order that a proper defense may be -On Christmas the employes of Mr. George F. Morris, Covent Garden Market, presented him with a beautiful gold-headed cane with his initials nicely engraved.

-Mr. Thomas Martin gives a piano recital in St. Catharines tonight, under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical Club. Mr. Martin is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Merritt.

-Mrs. C. Root and her son Arthur, of Strtahroy, and Mrs. T. S. Edwards and grandchildren, of St. Thomas, spent Christmas with Mr. James Campbell, of 155 Wharncliffe street, London West. -About 80 members of the choir and

Sunday school orchestra of the Queen's Avenue Methodist Church were pleasantly entertained at the residence of Mr. Thomas McCormick, South London, last night. -Dr. Thomas Cullen, of the Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, Md., is spending a couple of weeks at the home of his father

Rev. Thomas Cullen, pastor of the Askin Street Methodist Church, South London. -The report of Mr. J. S. Laschinger on the efficiency of the new waterworks pumps has been received by Engineer Moore, and it will be brought before the board at an early date. It is understood to be satisfactory. Z-A dentist could probably drive home the filling in a tooth with a single blow from a large hammer, but he does a better job and the job lasts longer by using a small hammer and repeating the blows. The same principle holds good in advertising. -The Port Stanley board thought a frame building would be good enough for the L. E. and D. R. roundhouse in this city. It has been brought to the members' notice. however, that the lease calls for brick, and of brick the building will accordingly be.

-The reception committee appointed by the various city Masonic lodges to receive the most worshipful grand master will meet in the library of the Masonic Temple tonight. It is hoped that a goodly number will be present to make final arrangements.

-Mr. S. R. Break, local manager of the street railway company, was in the city yesterday, but returned to Detroit in the evening. Mr. Break will return in a week, when he will know whether or not his position in Detroit will necessitate his removal there.

-Ex-Ald. Wilkey and wife, East London, were passengers on the Majestic on the recent westward trip. When Mrs. Wilkey went over several weeks ago Sir John Thompson and daughter were passengers. On the westward trip Miss Thompson returned alone.

-The banqueting room of the Masonic Temple presented a bright appearance last night, when the Balmoral Club had their first assembly. About 75 couples were present, and with Mr. James McCormick as master of ceremonies it is needless to say a very enjoyable time was spent.

-A very pleasant time was spent last evening by the members of the Epworth League and the choir of the Askin Street Methodist Church, the occasion being an imformal reception tendered them by Rev. Mr. Cullen and family at their residence. Games of various kinds and music were indulged in. Refreshments were served at an early hour, and the gathering dispersed, all seeming to have thoroughly enjoyed th

-The young man who resisted arrest in London West on Monday night and re-ceived a severe beating is in St. Joseph's Hospital. He is rapidly recovering, although his injuries are very painful. At the jail he gave the name of Jeffrey Omery, but the hospital register gives the name of Dicey. It is asserted on good authority that his residence is New York and that he was visiting well-to-do persons in this city.

-An interesting case was heard by Squire R. F. Lacey yesterday afternoon. James Black, a well-to-do London township farmer, residing on con. 1, had ten sheep killed and several worried by a dog in November. Mr. Black discovered his loss early in the morning. He could dis-tinguish prints of a dog's feet on the heavy frost, and traced them to the house of his neighbor, Mr. F. J. Miller. Now, Mr. Black wants Mr. Miller to make good the loss, which has been fixed by a valuator at $57. The complainant was examined for six hours and the case was adjourned till

-A most interesting event occurred at the residence of Mr. G. W. Calcott, 368 Ridout street, on the evening of Dec. 26, being the marriage of Mr. Calcort's niece, Lizzie E. Irwin, to Mr. Henry W. Burch, of Blaine, Mich. The bride, who was very charmingly attired in cream cashmere and lace and carried a bouquet of cream roses, was attended by Miss Hattie Burch, sister of the groom, while the groomsman was Mr. A. Calcott, of London. After the ceremony the guests, about 40 in number, adjourned to the dining-room, where a sumptuous repast was served. The many valuable presents received testify to the high esteem in which the bride was held by her many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Burch left for their home in Michigan amid a shower of good wishes and rice from their numerous friends.

-The election of officers for the ensuing year for London Legion, No. 85, Select Knights of Canada, took place in their rooms at Trebilcock's hall last evening as follows: Past commander, J. Justin; commander, S. T. Cook; vice-commander, T. Griffith; lieutenant commander, F. H.

treasurer, G. Parish (re-elected); trustee for three years, E. W. Gould; aide, Geo. Robertson; I. S., W. Davidson; O. S., Geo. McDowell; auditors, S. T. Cook and and C. W. Belton; district deputy, Dr. J. H. McLellan. This legion is in a very encouraging condition, and with the new officers expects great things in the coming

The Dominion Alliance.

A meeting of the executive of the Dominion Alliance will be held shortly to make preparations for the annual meeting. The decision of the Supreme Court as to the power of the Province to enact a prohibitory law, is expected to be given on the 15th of January, and, in all probability, the alliance will decide to hold the annual meeting between that date and the first session of the Ontario Legislature. New Music.

Mr. Chas. J. Miers, of this city, has just composed a pretty two-step polks, which is certain to be popular in musical circles. It is published by T. B. Harms & Co., 18 East Second street, New York.

"My Sweetheart Eloise," is the title of charming new song, which E. A. Skimmings, the popular Canadian song writer, has just given to the public. It is published by W. H. Billing, Toronto.

Below Zero. The temperature dropped to four degrees below zero during the night, but luckily the wind died almost completely away. London and vicinity were accorded a very light fall of snow during the night. Through trains on the Grand Trunk are still behind time. The general storm raging in the west delayed No. 40, due shortly after noon, seven hours. The day express from the east was still three hours late to-day.

Dr. Beemer Arrives. Dr. Beemer, the latest addition to the medical staff of the London asylum, arrived last evening. Dr. Beemer is a nephew of the Dr. Beemer who was formerly connected with the asylum staff here, and was accorded a farewell supper at the Hamilton asylum on Wednesday night on the occasion of his departure. The attendants and employes presented Dr. Boomer with an elegant gilt table and address, to which the doctor made a most appropriate reply, taking occasion to say that he did not think there was a more loyal and devoted class of employes to be found than at the Hamilton asylum, and the prominent position which it occupied among the public institutions of this country was largely attributable to that cause.

Sunday School Entertainment. The building fund of the St. James' Church, South London, was largely augmented last night by the proceeds of the entertainment by the young folks of the Sunday school. The attendance was very large. Archdeacon Davis made an efficient and capable chairman. The programme was as follows: Instrumental, Miss L. Sayer; "Sing. Sing for Christmas." chorus; recitation. Lottie McEiheran; dialogue by five girls; song, Eva Burrel; recitation, Flora Fewings; instrumental, tion, Margarat Mallah was decided to the state of the sta Neta McLean, flag drill by young ladies, Hunt; carol by seven girls: recitation, Daisy LeClear; song, Flora Harding; chorus, "Glory, Glory;" recition, L. Fawcett; shorus, "Santa Claus is Coming;" instrumental duet, Daisy LeClair and Lottie

McLearn. Address to Dr. Macgregor. The following address, which was not out of the engrosser's hands when Dr. Macgregor was banqueted on the eve of his removal from the city, has been forwarded to the doctor at Kent Bridge. The address was handsomely engrossed by Mr. R. Ironsides, assistant city engineer:
"J. A. Macgregor, M.D., M.C.P.S.O.:

Dear Doctor, - The London Medical Society, of which you have been a painstaking officer and an active member, deems the occasion of your departure from this city a fitting opportunity for an expression of the esteem in which you are held by all its members, and the loss which the society sustains in your removal. As corresponding secretary your reports to the medical journals of the proceedings of the society were invariably mpartial, concise and interesting. Your record as a student, and your subsequent standing as a practitioner in this city, reflect great credit upon your perseverance, judgment and ability. Your modesty and discretion, exemplary character and efficient qualifications will command public confidence and patronage, while your industry in the pursuit of professional knowledge is bound to bring you into the front rank among your confreres. This society assures you of its best wishes for your success, and will watch your future with interest and hearty good will." Signed on behalf of the London Medical Society, R. Ferguson, M. D., convener of committee; J. H. Gardiner, M.D., president London Medical Society; Watter M. English, M.D., a large number of cases were disposed of by Judge Mackenzie, of Sarnia. One which attracted considerable interest was brought by Wm. J. Element, lime dealer, against the London Machine Tool Company, who have had the waterworks contracts in hand, Mr. Element claimed $25 for goods supplied during the summer. It appeared that Mr. Element had garnisheed the water commissioners for the amount, City Solicitor Meredith contended that the debt, if any was owing by the commissioners, was due to the Tool Company and the Blake Company jointly. Therefore, the moneys could not be garnisheed. It was also shown by Secretary Ellwood that numerous assignments had been made by the London Tool Company, which would probably more than cover their entire interest in the waterworks contract. It was further shown that the company's entire interest had been transferred in September last to the Blake Company to secure the completion of the work. Mayor Essery, acting for the plaintiff, held that Mr. Element should not be deprived of his claim by reason of partiality being shown to others in the giving of orders upon the commissioners. Judge Mackenzie, however, agreed with the city solicitor's view of the case, but he adjourned the case till Jan. 18 to allow Element, if so disposed, to bring before the court all the parties holding orders or assignments made by the Tool Company for the purpose of contesting the validity of their claims.

In the case of John Elliott & Sons vs. John McVicar, a Dorchester farmer, a jury was empaneled. The claim was for $40 for a second hand harvester binder sold to MoVicar in 1892. McVicar refused to pay, claiming that the machine did not work properly. He called several farmers to corroborate his assertion. Judgment was given for the full amount. Geo. G. Gunn for plaintiffs, Taibot Macbeth for defense.

LADY ABERDEEN, WAITRESS.

Her Novel Task at a Hospital Dinner-

An Archbishop Ladles Scup. MONTREAL, Que., Dec 28 .- The annual dinner given by the lady patronesses of Notre Dame Hospital to the sick poor had several novel features yesterday. The Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen were present, with several of their staff, while among the clergy were Archbishop Fabre and Canon Bruchesi. The Countess of Aberdeen, who arrived nearly an hour before the Governor-General, donned the car, apron and red cross badge worn by the sisters who attended the patients, and after the sisters and the patronesses had been presented to her she addressed them briefly in French, felicitously eulogizing the pious nurses for having chosen a career which entailed so much hereism and self-sacrifice, and which required so much nobility of character. Lord Aberdeen made a short address in the same strain later on. His Grace the Archbishop, having tied an apron on, ladled out the soup with the dexterity of an experienced chef, and Lady Aberdeen. assisted by the patronesses and the good sisters, assisted as waitress
