Local Market.

London, Saturday, Nov. 25. The market square this morning presented an animate, appearance, in contrast to Tues lay's and Thursday's dull market: with meager offerings and listless purchasers. The space was well occupied with the farmers' vehicles, and those who came late had to content themselves with such poor stands as were left. The price of butter was a little easier.

There was not more than an average quantity in, and as the demand was strong the farmers were enabled to effect speedy sales.

Potatoes were firm in price. While the number of wagon-loads was not larger than usual, and prices were very fair, still the farmers did not get rid of their loads very quickly. As a general thing, the butchers, who make it their regular work to attend the market, have not been at all opti-mistic in their remarks; always according to what they say, there is too much and business is slow. One of them ac-counted for this state of affairs by saying that as pork has been so very cheap this year, the farmers have used it, and have not bought beef or lamb on the market, as they did in past years.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.-Wheat, depressed by the forced liquidation of December, slumped to the bottom mark for the present crop, closing %c to %c under yesterday. Corn sold off with wheat, and on lower cables, with final prices 1/4c to 1/8c lower. Oats closed 1/4c to 1/8c under, and provisions with little change. New York reported only 18 loads taken for export, and there was no foreign inquiry here. Receipts at primary points were 932,000 bushels, compared with 1,576,000 last year. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 74 cars against 802 last week, and 1,553 a year ago. Local receipts were 59 cars, 18 of EAST BUFFALO, Now. 24.—Cattle—Two loads on sale, and the good kind sold full strong, but the market on the poor kind is still in very bad position; western reports are lower, and buyers are extremely reluctant to take them even at a heavy decline in the basis. Calves were in moderate supply, fair demand, and strong at the quoted figures; choice to extra were quotable at $7.50 to $7.75; good to choice, $7 to $7.50. Sheep and lambs—The total was 48 loads, including 12 loads of Canada lambs; there was a fair trade at the price; sheep rather dull; lambs, choice to extra, were quotable at $4.85 to $5; good to choice, $4.50 to $4.75; common to good, $4. to $4.25; sheep, choice to extra, $4. to $4.25; good to choice, $3.75 to $4; common to fair, $2.50 to $3.50; Canada lambs sold on the basis of $5.05 to $5.15; there was a fair general clearance. The general support to the wool market is a sustaining feature to the sheep and lamb trade at the present. Hogs—The market opened slow and lower, with a few loads on sale; the bulk of the sales were at $4.05, with a few at $4.10 to $4.15; heavy and mixed were quotable at $4.10; Yorkers, $4.05; the close was dull and the prices lower than the opening.

TORONTO, Nov. 24.—Receipts at the western cattle market today were small, 42 loads, representing 525 cattle, 860 sheep and lambs, and 1,700 hogs. Export cattle—Comparatively nothing Export cattle—Comparatively nothing was done in this line; the demand for export cattle is weak. Butchers' cattle—There was, if anything, a better feeling, although prices changed but slightly, good quality heifers sold at $3 50 per cwt, and medium mixed lots at $3 to $3 25 per cwt; choice fat picked heifers ranged around $4 to $4 12½ per cwt; but most of the quality of per cwt, but most of the quality of-fered today sold at $3 to $3 50 per cwt; common cattle slow, at $2 50 per cwt. Export bulls—A few export bulls sold at $3 75 to $4 25 per cwt. Feeders were in fair demand at unchanged prices; heavy feeders sold at $4.30 to $4.75 per cwt, and light feeders at $3 to $3.25 per cwt. Stockers were unchanged, and sold a trifle more readily than and sold a trifle more readily than during the earlier part of the week. Milch cows—About 15 sold at $30 to $50. Bulls—Feeding sold at $2 50 to $3: light stock bulls, $2 25 per cwt, and for Buffalo at $1 75 to $2 per cwt. Sheep and lambs—Prices unchanged at $3 25 to $3 65 for lambs, and $3 25 to $3 50 for export ewes. A few calves sold at $4 to $10. Hogs—Market steady, with no decided predictions for next week. The impression is that prices will rule the same for another week. will rule the same for another week, at $4 for unculled lots of 160 to 200 pounds, natural weight.

STARTLING NEWS FROM CAIRO

The Khalifa and Nearly All His Emirs Killed.

Thousands of Prisoners in the Hands of the British -Osman Digna Escaped - Completeness of Wingate's

Cairo, Nov. 25 .- Lord Cromer, the British minister here, has received the following dispatch from Gen. Lord

"Wingate's force came up with the Khalifa's force seven miles southeast of Godid and attacked it. After a sharp fight we took his position. The Khalifa, who was surrounded by a bodyguard of emirs, was killed, and the principal emirs killed or captured, except Osman Digna, who escaped. The dervishes were utterly defeated. | the negative. Their whole camp was taken, and thousands surrendered. A large number of women, children and cattle also fell into the hands of the Anglo-Egyptian force. DERVISH POWER CRUSHED. If the khalifa, referred to as having een killed in battle, is Abdullah El Taishi, the great chieftain of the Sou-dan, who has given the British so much trouble, it may be said that the power of the dervishes is probably crushed. He was one of the three khalifas who, in 1882, helped the famous mandi to overthrow the government of Egypt in the Eastern Soudan and establish the despotism of the mahdi in its place. At the battle of Omdurman, Sept. 2, 1898, Gen. Kitchener utterly defeated the forces of the khalifa with tremmendous slaughter, but the khalifa, with his harem and Osman Digna,

MOST FAMOUS OF THE SOUDAN-ESE GENERALS, escaped, and have since been fugitives.

There may be some further trouble for the British in the Soudan, owing to the fact that Osman Digna has escaped. He is a man of undoubted courage and remarkable military WHAT KITCHENER MIGHT HAVE

London, Nov. 25.—A letter from an officer at Omdurman says Wingate's force, which recently defeated the dervishes near the Nile, south of Khartoum, consisted of five squadrons of cavalry, two infantry brigades, two howitzers, ten maxim guns and 1,000 camels. The letter adds: "We shall have to attack the khalifa this win-There is no possibility of his attacking Omdurman. But, he will do his utmost to create risings, and will attempt a raid along the west bank of the White Nile. He is known to have 3,500 riflemen, 7,000 spearmen, and more cavalry. These are now reported to be full of fanatical zeal. We shall probably find our chief losses due to fever, scarcity of water, and the cattle-fly. But, I assure you, that when we begin the Khalifa will be vigorously pursued, to prevent his doing any more harm among the scat-tered Dervishes in South Darfur."

LIKES AND DISLIKES.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephens had quite a falling out the other morning at breakfast. It was on the old question of whether Mr. Stephens should eat porridge or not. Mrs. Stephens took the affirmative; her lord and master won't eat, and everything that's bad for you, you crave for," said Mrs. Stephens. "H'm," said Mr. Stephens. "H'm," may mean anything ranging from scorn and contempt to wonder and delight. In this case it was meant to convey a moderate amount of polite, but eminently dignified interest. "You like your eggs hard and your bread soft. You won't eat porridge, though you know the Scotch are-"Because the Scotch eat porridge, does that say that it'll make me a Highlander if I eat it?" demanded Mr. Stephens.

"It'll make you a deal healthier than you are," said Mrs. Stephens.
"But I don't like it," said Mr. "Then you should like it, and there's something wrong with you if you don't," retorted Mrs. Stephens. "You'll be prescribing Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets for me next," said Mr.

Stephens, with biting sarcasm.

"And why not?" exclaimed Mrs.

Stephens, warmly. "They've cured better men than you of their dislike for wholesome food." "They won't get the chance to cure me," said Mr. Stephens. "You're a fool,' said Mrs. Stephens. But we must excuse Mrs. Stephens. Men are such unreasonable creatures

LABOR LEADER EXPELLED.

Winnipeg, Nov. 25 .- The Winnipeg labor party has expelled John Apple ton, one of their most prominent members, and one of the commissioners on the Crow's Nest Pass grievances. His offense was appearing on a political platform and supporting Col. McMillan, the Liberal candidate. Mr. Appleton's expulsion will cause a lively row in labor circles.

Guaranteed Catarrh Cure.

Catarrhozone, ozonated air cure, is guaranteed to cure Chronic Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis and Hay Fever. It cures by inhalation. The medicated air is carried directly to the diseased parts, where it kills the germ life that causes Catarrh, and at the same time heals up all sore places, and a permanent cure is effected. Catarrhozone when inhaled is volatile enough to impregnate the minutest cell of the lungs and bronchial tubes, where it attacks the disease at its foundation. It cures because it is sure to reach the right spot. Sold by all druggists or by mail, price $1. For trial outfit send 10c in stamps to N. C. POLSON & CO., Box 567, Kingston, Ont.
