Pl. asing Recital Given at the Aud torium Last Night.

Miss Hambly and Her Pupils Delight a Large Audience.

In point of attendance, last evening's entertainment in the Auditorium was by far the most successful that has been held there this season. The seating capacity was taxed to its utmost limit, and while the boxes, aisles, and halis were filled hunareds of people were turned away. A more pleasing style of amusement could not be easily devised. Several scenes from a few acts of Shakespearean plays, and some songs and instrumental selections completed the programme, but the clever and pleasing rendition of these Well-known citizen who passed away ed up by Sunday. numbers gratified the large audience o a high degree, which was shown by the hearty applause that was given. To Miss Jessica L. Hambly, the largest amount of credit is due. Her untir ing efforts for several weeks past and her unquestioned ability as a teacher of elocution crowned the recital last evening with success. Two scenes from "Hamlet" were given, Mr. Chas F.
