TORONTO.

Toronto. Oct. 5.-There was quite an improvement in trade at the city cattle market today. The run was heavy, consisting of 124 cars of stock, with over 2.000 head of cattle and a heavy run of sheep and lambs, but prices were fully maintained, and on the whole a shade firmer than on Tuesday for all good stock, though the poor quality could not be said to be any higher. In fact, there is sim too large a proportion of very poor quality stock coming in, and this stuff acts as a drag on the market. There was, however, some loads of very good stock in the market today, in particular among the heavy teeders and short state. the neavy feeders and short-keep cattle.
The total receipts were 124 cars, with 2,106 head of cattle, 2,036 sheep and mbs, 800 hogs and 144 calves.

lambs, 800 hogs and 144 calves.

The export trade is still very quiet, with not mucn in the way of first-class shippers offering. Top prices for choice exporters are quoted at $450, but there was a good load sold today at $425. The butcher trade was good and active, specially for the best qualities. Rough, common butchers and common cows are easy, but good butcher cows were wanted and were a little firmer. easy, but good butcher cows were wanted and were a little firmer.

There is a good market for heavy feeders and good stockers. Choice quality feeding steers, 1,000 to 1,100 lbs, sell at $3.60 to $3.75, the average run of good feeding steers going at $3.25 to $3.60; feeding bulls at $2.25 to $2.50.

MEDICOS HOLD INAUGURAL DINNER

Last evening the medical students to the number of 100 met at 11 o'clock to hold a banquet tendered to the freshby the sophomores. The boys, having attended the Grand Opera House, were able and willing to do justice to the ample repast set before

Shortly after 12 o'clock the chairopened the programme by proposing the toast to "The King," after which the students sang the National An-

Next came the toast to the faculty to which Dr. Hadley Williams responded, emphasizing the fact that the faculty wished to be in personal touch with the students and to make the college the foremost in the Province. Joe Chamberlain gave a solo in his usual pleasing manner, after the toast to the profession was drunk.

To this Drs. Ernest Williams and George Clark responded, the former pointing out the way to study, and he latter speaking of the higher ranches of medicine. Mr. Lutton then favored the audience vith an instrumental.

Mr. Norman Beal was called upon to explain the uses and advantages of convocation, advocating that the students unanimously strive to make it more successful in the future. Mr. Lindsay entertained the company by drawing cartoons of some of the nembers present.

The toast to "The Graduates" was responded to by Mr. Allan Blackwell. He held the attention of the audience for some time by relating some of the nany experiences of the year. Mr. Stockwell gave a solo, after which the toast to "The Ladies" was called for. To this Messrs. McQuaid, solo, after

W. Russell and A. McMillen responded with a few well-chosen words. Mr. Charles Sawers spoke for the ophomores, giving much needed ad-Mr. McKenzie also spoke for the freshmen, after which all arose and sang "God Save the King."

OF PEANUT MEN

Counsel's Plea for the Class. Regarded as a Nuisance— A Toothache Cure.

"I regard the business of these men as an unmitigated nuisance. For the small sum of $15 the city allows them to carry on their trade in the busiest part of the city, and has to pay the salary of a couple of policemen to watch them continually. These men actually believe that for $15 they have rented from 15 to 30 yards of the street in the most valuable section and can stay within these small limits to carry

The arsity A Smart New Sack Suit.

In the "Varsity" you'll find a suit that'll strike you at once as being the smartest style you've seen. The picture shows both the single and double breasted models in the 31-inch length. We have them in 32 and 33 coats as well, with either side or center vents. It isn't a suit that's easily described in print, it has to be seen to do it justice. It's a suit that needs no salesman's help; its good points are too pronounced to need any pointing out. But come in and see it for yourself. You can do that without buying, if you like.

THE VARSITY-A smart new suit style that we show in a half-hundred new designs and colors, including a fine range of the new olive and dark brown shades, in handsome stripes and fancy Scotch overchecks; single or double breasted coats in any fashionable length. Trousers in either pegtop or conservative styles. Young men's sizes in every number. Unequaled values at these prices.
