A DAY IN THE SPORTING WORLD

SIDE LIGHTS ON MANY SPORTSJEFF DECIDES
TO MEET NEGRORetired Champion Will Make Formal Announcement.BIG FELLOW MAD
OVER JOHNSON'S TALKWill Knock His Block Off, Boil-maker Tells New York Acquaintance.

New York, March 17. — James J. Jeffries has decided to re-enter the prize ring to fight Jack Johnson, the negro champion of the world. This formal announcement will be made by Jeffries in a few days, it was said, on excellent authority. To-night, he will also send word to Johnson to come on here and sign articles of agreement.

In the Jeffries camp it is said that the boilermaker has refrained from stating definitely his plans, for the reason that he will have the decision to fight again might destroy public interest in Jeffries' training exhibitions on the stage. But in view of Johnson's fight talk in Chicago, and his expressed willingness to tackle Jeffries at any time, winner to take all, or in a fair cut of the purse, it was said tonight that Jeff and his friends had reached the conclusion that the time is now ripe for him to declare himself.

Will Fight.

"I am going to fight this fellow Johnson," said Jeffries, confidentially to a certain friend on Tuesday night, "and what is more, I am going to knock his block off. I have been stalling because we thought that we could keep up the public's interest in my theatrical exhibition, but now I am getting ready to say that I can get fit and that I will fight again to recover the heavyweight title for the white race. I am going to keep on training moderately until after my theatrical engagements, and then I will begin the real hard work."

Jeffries informed several friends today that he weighed 255 pounds, and that he would be able to take off thirty pounds, and be in old-time form by next fall. He is believed to be next to Jeffries and Johnson will fight in San Francisco, perhaps in December. When Johnson arrives here in a few days it is said the big match will be agreed to, barring the location of the battleground, which will depend upon who are the highest bidders. Hugh Mcintosh stands ready to offer a $50,000 purse for the mill, while James Coltrough of Colma, has already secured Johnson's agreement to meet Jeff before his club. Jeff says that an offer of $100,000 from several Seattle promoters looks especially good to him. In the negotiating stage, however, it must be remembered that Johnson as champion will have much to say before articles can be signed.

Berger Predicts Victory.

Sam Berger, Jeffries' sparring partner, said today that the big fellow would first fight Johnson, probably next fall, and that the negro would be knocked out. Berger seemed to think that as soon as Johnson found that Jeff was really in on training, he would develop his supposed yellow streak, of which Burns talked so glibly, but which did not show during the battle at Sydney.

It is understood that ever since Johnson arrived in British Columbia, Jeffries has been boiling inwardly because of the negro's chatter. Jeff does not relish Johnson's streak, that he can beat the boilermaker as easily as he trimmed Burns, and that as a matter of fact, Jeff dodged a challenge from him four years ago by drawing the color line after Johnson had knocked the big Californian's brother Jack out in five rounds.

EAST VS. WEST
WILL BE HUMMERGathering a Fast Seven to Tackle
the Westerners at Stratford Tonight.

Toronto, March 19.—Shortly after 12 o'clock yesterday Andy Kyle hung up the receiver of the telephone.

Another one landed! One more yet, and he's sure.

He had been talking to Blanchard, the fast little wing player of the Whiteby team, and the easterner had jumped at Andy's offer to yell on the all-stars of the east against the west to-night in Stratford.

This game will be a hummer. Kyle has had his troubles in the proper stuff, for to him most of the work fell in lining up the east.

Brown, the T. R. C. crack goalkeeper, was the other man to whom he referred. Gallitner, the U. C. C. boy, was not able to go, and Brown is expected to be available. He is a star.

As matters now stand the east team will be:

Brown, T. R. C. goal.
Kyle, Eureka, captain.
Rowe, Barrie, cover.
Lane, Eureka, rover.
Meeking, Barrie, centre.
Matthews, Eureka, right.
Blanchard, Whiteby, left.

There has been a good deal of trouble in connection with the team, but Kyle now has a line-up that looks good. All the men are experts in their positions, and the disadvantage of being new to one another will be equal on both sides.

A peculiarity is that Foyston, of Barrie, is on the west team, and Rowe and Meeking, on the east. This could not well be avoided, Barrie, however, being always considered in the eastern section.

The estimated value of dairy products for 1937 was $200,000,000, and that of poultry $200,000,000.

Joe Kelley writes that Second Baseman Mullen has signed his contract.
