Winnipeg, July 2.—Wheat prices opened strong this morning on unexpected higher Liverpool and reports from Russia being more bullish on wheat conditions there. Winnipeg opened ½c to 1c higher, and in the first thirty minutes stood at a gain over Tuesday's close of 1%c to 1%c, this advance, however, not being maintained, and at noon had declined somewhat. Final closing prices were, however, at the high points. The political situation in Europe was also said to have a bearing on the higher wheat prices. Closing figures were

In cash circles, there was a good demand for No.'s 1 and 2 northern wheat, and offerings were light. Other grains were in quiet demand. Exporters were buying freely of the options in new crop months. Contract cash grades of wheat closed 1½c to 1¾c higher; oats closed unchanged to ½c lower. Cash barley closed unchanged to 1c higher. Flax on the other hand, advanced 11/2c on all grades.

The weather map shows generally hot and warm over the three wheat provinces, a light rain recorded at Edmonton being the only point. In Northern Saskatchewan, from Yorktown to Humboldt, there is a deficiency in moisture, and damage is feared unless rains fall immediately. This section is said to be the greatest out.

Mayor Graham received a letter this afrnoon from T. R. Wright, president of the London Builders' Exchange, in which Mr. Wright declared that the exchange was in no trouble, and had no cause to hold a conference with E. N. Crompton, fair-wage officer of the Doninion Government.

Mr. Crompton is in Hamilton, and had Mayor Graham write a letter to the Builders' Exchange and arrange a meetng, so he could get the particulars of the arpenters' strike here. The reply of Mr. Wright indicates that the builders do not recognize the strike of he carepnters which is now on.

Justice Lennox Speaks Out, in Dismissing Case, Against Plaintiffs.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, July 3 .- In dismissing the action brought by Dr. Rufus H. Parent and Dr. Rodolph Chevrier against Miss Celina Charlebois, Mr. Justice Lennox indulges in some caustic comments. The action was for specific performance of an al-leged agreement for the sale by Miss Charlebois of certain property in Ottawa, where the parties live. The plaintiffs asked for specific performance or $5,000 damages.

His lordship says: "The contract set up by the plaintiffs is an unconscionable one. The plaintiffs are shrewd, keen, educated men. The defendant is an aged, hysterical woman, living alone. The plaintiffs admit that she did not want to sell, that she cried when they asked her to do so, that she tried to get away; in fact, that she rushed away, and that the plaintiff

Parent followed her and persisted in getling an agreement. "It is sworn to and not denied, that he plaintiffs insisted that if she did not conclude a bargain with them she would be without bread and upon the road."

"The evidence forces me to the conclusion that this woman was not fairly P. R. for Montreal, where they will dealt with. She never had a fair chance board the Laurentic, White Star Line, to understand, deliberate or protect her-for Old London, where they will spend self.
