Ladies' Auxiliary Arranges Sanatorium Garden Party

Conveners Are Appointed For the Big Fete Which Will Mark the Fourteenth Anniversary of the Hospital Opening.

One of the outstanding functions of this month will be the garden party which is to be held in the grounds of the Queen Alexandra Sanatorium at Byron, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary Association. The occasion of the party is the fourteenth anniversary of the opening of the institution, and the hostesses for the occasion will be the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the London Health Association, of which Mrs. George Brown is president.

The R.C.R. band will be in attendance throughout the whole afternoon, when the grounds of the sanatorium will be thrown open to the public for inspection. This band, made up of patients of the hospital, will also have a tent in which they will display their work for sale as well as candy and soft drinks. The visitors of the day, however, will be the guests of the Health Association at the tea hour. The reception committee will include Mrs. H. E. Gates, vice-president of the Ladies' Auxiliary; Mrs. (Dr.) Platon, wife of the superintendent of the sanatorium; Miss Forster, lady superintendent, and the wives of the medical house staff at the sanatorium.

Mrs. C. H. Ziegler is convenor of the tea committee, with Mrs. Ibbotson-Leonard in charge of the ice cream. Mrs. Ziegler's committee includes Mrs. C. R. Somerville, Mrs. Ray Lawson, Mrs. Thomas Baker, Mrs. Arthur Little, Miss Helen Little, Miss Marion Beck, Mrs. Ronald Harris, Mrs. Thomas Parsons, Mrs. J. C. Judd, Mrs. B. C. McCann, Mrs. Archie McMahon and Mrs. Hume Cronyn.

On Mrs. Leonard's ice cream committee, there are Mrs. Harley Brown, Mrs. F. R. Eccles, Mrs. Thomas Coffey, Mrs. C. E. Morris, Mrs. Gordon Ingram, Mrs. Thomas Parsons, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. F. E. Parnell, Mrs. J. Cameron Wilson, Mrs. Lionel Eliot, Miss Alice Leonard, Miss Mary Meredith, Mrs. C. H. Hyman and Mrs. J. H. Chapman.

LONDON GOLFERS WIN OVER HAMILTON TEAM

Eight Local Players Defeated Their Opponents With One Match Tied.

The London team of lady golfers defeated the Hamilton team at the Hunt Club links yesterday afternoon, with eight and half wins for London and three and a half wins for the Hamilton ladies. The match, which was played on Friday, was at one thirty o'clock, and many of the club members gathered at the first tee to witness the start of the match. A club luncheon was served following the arrival of the Hamilton team in the city, which was also attended.

This is the first visit of an outside team this season, and it is expected that it will be followed by many more similar matches. The London team goes to Woodstock on Friday to play the team there.

The play yesterday afternoon was as follows: Miss Helen Baker defeated Miss Helen Gibson of Hamilton; Miss Nesbitt of Hamilton defeated Miss Marion Beck; Mrs. George Little defeated Miss Wright of Hamilton; Mrs. Gordon Ingram defeated Miss MacFarlane of Hamilton; Mrs. Counsel of Hamilton and Mrs. Sterling tied; Miss Jo Belton defeated Mrs. Robert of Hamilton; Mrs. Ronald Harris defeated Mrs. Colin Gibson of Hamilton; Mrs. C. O. Warner defeated Mrs. M. Hendrie of Hamilton; Mrs. Cramer of Hamilton defeated Mrs. Ernest Williams; Mrs. W. G. Webster defeated Mrs. Bliss of Hamilton; Mrs. Helen of Hamilton defeated Mrs. Claude Brown and Mrs. George Belton defeated Mrs. Waddie.

WEDDINGS

HOWSE-SHAW.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the Methodist Church, Luton, when Geraldine Joy, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Shaw, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas K. Howse, of Luton.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, who also performed the ceremony, and was prettily attired in smoke blue tulle, crepe with pailles trimmings. She wore a bouquet of sweet peas and Ophelia roses.

Miss Flory Edwards of Bayfield played the wedding music and Mrs. Walter J. Glassford of Luton, cousin of the bride, sang "O Promise Me".

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the parsonage, after which the young couple left for a brief honeymoon amid showers of confetti and good wishes.

BALL-TRINNEAR.

An interesting wedding took place on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron C. Trinneer in Raleigh, when Geraldine Joy, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Shaw, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas K. Howse, of Luton.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. H. W. Crews, pastor of Park Street Methodist Church, at 3 o'clock, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. A beautiful arch of evergreens, orange blossoms, peonies, lilacs-of-the-valley and fern made a most artistic decoration for the drawing-room, where the marriage took place.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was very attractive in silver gray tulle, crepe, heavily beaded, and gray slippers and stockings. Her flowers were a corsage of roses.

JESSIE MACFARLANE WILL DIRECT 'Y' WORK

Miss Edith Wynne-Pryce, physical director of the Y. W. C. A., leaves at the end of the month for the Chautauqua School of Physical Education in New York, where she will spend the next six weeks in study. On her way to Chautauqua she will make a brief visit in Cleveland. Miss Pryce will return to London in September after spending the last days of the summer in Pictou.

During Miss Pryce's absence Miss Jessie MacFarlane will carry on her work in connection with the Y. W. C. A. physical department. Miss MacFarlane, who is a fourth-year student at the Western University, has had two seasons' experience in the city playground work, and is eminently fitted to substitute for Miss Pryce during the summer.

Miss Pryce hopes to come back to London in the fall with many new ideas for an exceptionally fine season's work next winter.
