Montreal, April 7.—Owing to the continued strength in the Winnipeg cash wheat market, the local flour market was stronger again, and millers generally marked up prices another 40c a barrel for spring wheat grades. The trade in all directions was slow, while prices for winter wheat grades were firm at the recent changes noted.

The feature of the millfeed trade was the renewed demand from United States buyers for bran and shorts, and a fair amount of business was done in this direction, but the trade for local and country account was reported to be still somewhat quiet. The market for rolled oats was steady.

Atlantic Sugar on Light Trading Advances Two Points to 701/4.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, April 8.—Traction stocks accounted for the bulk of the trading on this morning's rather quiet session of the local stock exchange. Brazilian, the most active, with approximately 450 shares changing hands, was easier, losing half a point at its closing price at 50, but Twin City, second in activity, displayed strength, advancing 1½ to 61½. Atlantic Sugar preferred on light trading advanced two points to 76½, while City Dairy closed % higher at 81½. Odd lot transactions in MacKay sent quotations up from 115 to 116.

Grain Markets

WINNIPEG Canadian Press Despatch. Winnipeg, April 7.—Sustained de Winnipeg, April 7.—Sustained demand, coupled with higher Liverpool cables, brought about a steady price advance on the wheat market here today, the May future being boosted 5½c to close at $1.51%. In a belated rally July jumped 4½c, finishing at $1.51, while October worked within a narrower range, the close of $1.30½ representing a gain of 1½c.

A good class of buying orders gave a strong impetus to the market shortly after the opening, exporters being good buyers against sales made last night. Prices gradually eased off, only to react again to the highest point of the day, $1.53½, an advance of 17c from the low figures on Saturday. Despite a vastly improved feeling among the trade, the bulges were difficult to hold, as offerings increased.

Seaboard advices stated that wheat export sales reached a total of 300,000 bushels of Manitobas, Germany and Italy being the principal buyers. Reports were circulated that Germany and Russia were negotiating for an addition supply of rye.

Oats and barley displayed marked strength, an excellent demand existing for both these commodities. Rye was firm, but quiet, while considerable business was worked in flax. Prices advanced substantially on all the coarse grain markets.

A continued improvement was reflected in the cash grain markets, shippers, exporters and millers showing keen interest.

and farmers throughout the whole countryside are taking advantage of nature's timely assistance.

On this account only one load of hay appeared on the local market this morning and with a slow demand sold at $12 a ton.

No grain of any kind was offered. Farmers on the market stated that they had removed the tappers from the trees as the sap was becoming strong and bitter. They also said that the last of the maple syrup would probably be offered on Saturday. The prices are not expected to lower much and the demand is scheduled to be dull. Butter and eggs are firm at the same prices.

The market tomorrow will likely be larger than any so far this week, and a few lots of vegetables will comprise most of the offerings, farmers asseri. Grain, Per Bushel:

Enthusiastic Spirit of School Is Reflected in New Edition of Tecalogue.

Co-incident with the re-naming of the Technical high school to be the London Technical and Commercial London Technical and Commercial high school, is the publication of the "Tecalogue" by the students of the school after a lapse of three years.

To say that the Tecalogue is published by the students of the Technical school is to state what is only exactly correct, since the material of the journal was prepared by the general student body and then printed by the students of the school printing department.

printing department.

The Tecalogue is, therefore, the product of the Technical school students in its entirety and from cover to cover of its 28 pages it is a creditable production. It breathes the en-thusiastic spirit which Principal H. B. Beal has engendered and fostered amongst the students from the start the school's history twelve years

The absence of advertising in the Tecalogue, with the exception of inside cover displays of the courses offered at the Technical school and of the scholarships awarded throughout the many departments of the school, is worthy of especial commen-
