I would heartily recommend them to all sufferers from Asthma, which I believe is caused or aggravated by Indigestion". D. A. WHITE

OFFICER SAYS KILTS THE PROPER THING

Sets Forth His Reasons Why Highland Dress is Better Than Trousers

London, May 10th.—The kilt as a soldiers' uniform has proved itself entirely superior to the trouser in the winter's hard campaign in France, according to an officer who writes home:

"The only times I've ever thought with even a tinge of regret on the trousers I've almost forgotten how to wear have been when I've chanced to wear gleaoinoiaoinaodlinuthaoidlnuuuu be on guard on a cold breezy night, when the wind maliciously whistles round and about your legs: then you feel involuntarily almost that two thickness of cloth might be better than none. But the thought vanishes as soon as you are relieved and see the guard-room fire again.

"I am told that the Canadian Scottish regiments treat their kilts as a sort of dress parade, and put on trousers when they go into the trenches. This is a great mistake, for it is in those very trenches that the kilt shines.

"For instance, it's no uncommon thing for a trousered section who have stood shivering on their platform with their wet things clinging to their legs for twenty-four hours to see with a feeling of envy their kilted comrades coming up through the water to relieve them with their kilts tucked up high out of the wet, so that the exception of feet and puttees they can look forward to a comfortable and, all things considered, a warm time instead of a shivery one. For the kilt, being exceptionally thick around the waist and loins keeps the whole body nice and warm, and if it does happen to get wet the constant swinging about tends to dry it quickly without a constant, clammy contact with the legs.

"On the night of the tenth, for instance, we were taken about seven o'clock through a stream which came over my hips, but the kilt was quite dry soon, and I felt no ill effects whatever from the wetting, although it was a bitterly cold night.

"But it is on the march that one appreciates the kilt most. There is a delicious coolness as the wind strikes your knees and helps you along, and there is a sense of freedom about the waist and shoulders that the trousered man will never feel.

"When you are in billets on a hard wood or stone floor, all you have to do is to take off your kilt and spread it on the floor, then with your blanket starting from the bottom of it and brought forward again over your feet, you have a bed which keeps all the cold and harness away.

"In actual fighting the moral effect of the kilt is of value, and its associations with hard and terrible fighting are so well known and appreciated that the very sight of bare knees and young kilts has an effect on the enemy as well as on yourselves."

REINFORCEMENTS FOR PRINCESS PATS

Second University Company Will Be Organized Shortly in Montreal

The following is a copy of the announcement that is being issued in connection with the organization of the Second University Company which is going to the front shortly as a reinforcement to the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry:

SECOND UNIVERSITY COMPANY
Canada Expeditionary Force
Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry

The Canadian Militia Department has authorized the organization of a Second University Compyany for Overseas Service, to go as a reinforcement to the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry. The Company will be commanded by Captain Geo. C. McDonald, of the McGill Contingent, C.O.T.C., with Captain Percival Molson, also of the McGill Contingent, C.O.T.C., as Second in Command.

Owing to the success which has attended the recruiting for the First University Company, which is at present up to full strength, and attached as "D" Company to the 38th Battalion Canadian Expeditionary Force, it was thought advisable to form another Company, and an application was made to the Department for the necessary authority, which has been granted.

Recruiting for the Company has already been started, and many names have been received. The Company will be composed of Graduates or Undergraduates of Universities or their friends. Conditions of Service and Rate of Pay will be the same as in the other Units of the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

The First University Company and the Toronto University and McGill University Contingents, C.O.T.C., are going to a Training Camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake on May 3rd to the 15th, and it is expected that during that period a large number of Recruits for the new Company will be obtained.

Immediately after the Camp active recruiting will be commenced at Montreal. The Headquarters of the Company will be at 382 Sherbrooke Street West, and any enquiries or applications should be addressed there to Lieutenant Geo. S. Currie, Recruiting Officer.

Water is now over fifteen feet seven inches high, or one foot seven inches higher than the summer height. Since Saturday last the river has come up almost two feet. Reports from the upper St. John to-day are very encouraging. Logs are running freely at Van Buren, Madawaska, although water dropped three feet since last night there is a very heavy driving pitch. At Woodstock the river came up a foot and a half. Reports from various points along the river to-day have been received of river rising.
