HAW KINS' LAST HOPE.

The Both well Election Case before the Supreme Court.

OT'AWA, Feb. 12.—Political interest to day was divided between the Bothwell election appeal and the Pacific railway debates in the house. At noon a special sassion of the supreme court was opened, the judges except Justice Taschereau being present, to hear the appeal in the Bothwell case. Hector Cameron, Q.C., and Mr. Beck (Toronto) appeared for the appellant, and Z. Lash, Q.C., for the respondent. Hawkins was in court; Mills was absent. The court sat till 4 o'clock. Ballot after ballot was handed to the chief justice and the other judges, and all but four down to Exhibit "S" were confirmed as they had been by Judge Galt. Jugement on these four was reserved. There was a lengthy argument on ten ballots cast in a subdivision of Sombra, the numbers and initials on which had been erased with rubber. Mr. Cameron argued that these ten ballots should be thrown out and the election voided, not in the interest of any particular candidate division. This point was being argued when the court rose till to-morrow. The decision of the court is awaited with deep

It is rumored—confidentially spoken of some-that the Grand Trunk railway have made a formal offer to the government to take over the Canadian Pacific railway and finish the line on the basis of the orig inal contract. This, however, does not in any way change the aspect of the motion before the house on the proposed loan.

The river has fallen steadily. The num ber of destitute is materially reduced, but there are several thousand still dependant on the relief committee, principally women, children and old men. Since the flood receded a peculiar phenomenon is noticed at Powhatan. Sand and water are thrown to a considerable height there by three regular geysers.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.—The Cincinnati Northern is the only road now able to take trains from the depot. It carries passengers for Cincinnati, Washington and Baltimore, and from the Panhandle to Loveland. Trains on the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis road are obliged to stop at Chester Park, seven niles cut. Ohio and Mississippi boats can no longer land and will use a ferry to con-rey passengers to and from the boats.

The situation to-day is more gloomy than ever. The river rose almost constantly from half an inch to an inch per hour. Great danger exists from weakened foundations. The two-story business house of C. A. Marsh & Co., fell from this cause to-day. day. In some cases it has been found necessary to rescue families from their homes. The masons have issued a strong appeal for assistance. At 10 this evening the river was 68 feet 1½ inches. It is rising half an inch an hour, and raining hard. LAWRENCEBURG, Iud., Feb. 12.—The situation grows worse. The mayor has asked help from abroad. More houses have been lifted from their foundations, and people are removing from the second floors, abandoning their goods because they have no place to take them, and the current is so swift that boating is danger.

SALISBURY'S MOTION CENSURING GLADSTONE CARRIED.

Premier Cheered-Northcote's Resolu-tion Not Yet Disposed of.

London, Feb. 12.-In making a motion omplices in this dishonor.

Earl Granville said the policy of the govnent would not be directed according to the articles in foreign journals. England and India had no interest in the Soudan, nor indeed had Egypt any permanent in-terest in that country. Since the defeat of Baker Pasha it had been altogether impos-sible to relieve Sinkat. The government had no intention of annexing Egypt. It would remain there simply long enough to secure a stable government.

The Marquis of Salisbury's motion was not received the support from England she had every right to expect.

Mr. Gladstone in rising to reply was greeted with loud and prolonged cheers. He denied there had been any vaccillation or inconsistency in the government's Egyptian policy. The situation in Egypt was not a situation which the present government created. It was one which they had found. He said 4000 men had been ordered to Suakim and that General Gordon had a plan of his own for extricating the had a plan of his own for extricating the garrisons and restoring the country to its

A Protest From the Grand Trunk. OTTAWA, Feb. 12.-The Grand Trunk eclares war on the Canadian Pacific railway to-day in a pamphlet entitled "Cor espondence between the Grand Trunk company and the dominion government respecting an advance to the Canadian Pacific railway company." While in the shape of correspondence, it is really a firm and threatening protest. One paragraph from a letter of the 2nd instant from Mr. from a letter of the 2nd instant from Mr. Hickson to Sir John Macdonald shows the spirit of the whole thing. It reads as follows: "You will realize, doubtless, that unless I can secure the intervention of the unless I can secure the intervention of the government it will be incumbent upon me, situated as I am, to make an appeal for justice to parliament in such a manner as constitutional usages will permit."
