A Good Motto.

The Well Dressed Man. The golden rule in dress is to keep clear Straight Vote of the Citizens to be Taken of extremes. The well-dressed man never wears anything striking or peculiar, and ratepayers was read at the city conncil meeting last evening, asking Mayor Boswears anything striking or peculiar, and his garments are always of the best ma-terial, one suit that costs $50 being prefer-able to two suits that costs $25 each—and the tailor's risk, it will be observed, is just the same in both cases. We are bound to add, however, that the gentleman who has but one suit instead of two cannot escaps embarrassmeat when it comes to sending his trousers to the shop for the purpose of having the wrinkles pressed out of them. The proper cut for coat and vest is that which makes them fit snug around the waist and loose over the chest, as the polite ottizen is thus admonished at every turn that he will not only look better, but also feel better, if he stands straight. vell to call a public meeting on Saturday evening, Dec. 13, to discuss the abolition of tax exemptions. In addition to the petition David Blain, president of the association for the abolition of tax exemp-tions, accompanied by A. W. Wright, sec-retary, and John Hallam, John Leys, Dr. Morton, A. T. McCord, R. H. Bowes, Wm. Kyle, Robt. Hay, M.P., and Assessment Commissioner Maughan, appeared as a deputation before the council. Mr. Blain made a brief address, and pressed the ob-jects of the organization upon the attention of the council. Mr. Blain urged that as the question was of such importance, a straight vote of the people should be taken thereon. A resolution was passed provid-ing for such a vote-"yea" or "nay"-at the next municipal elections. evening, Dec. 13, to discuss the abolition
