Luncheon and Speeches. our hundred members of the New York tate Hotelkeepers' Association, in sesion for a few days at Niagara Falls, accompanied by their wives and daughcame over to Toronto yesterday, steamer Empress of India. They ere met at the wharf by members of were met at the wharf by members of the Toronto Hotelekepers' Association, and for the remaining hours of the day were the guests of that organization. The visitors were accompanied by the band of the 42nd U. S. regiment, who struck up a familiar British air as the boat steamed in and the visitors stepped to the wharf.

Among the officers of the American society who were among the visitors were: President Daniel Holland, New York City; 1st Vice J. J. O'Hara, Binghamton; 2nd Vice T. J. Lally, Yonkers; Recording Sec. John Morrison, Syracuse; Fin.-Sec. Julius Gottschalk; Treas. August Boetshold, Buffalo?

The visitors were conducted to cabe, which were in waiting, and given a long drive through the residential districts of the city, reaching Exhibition Park shortly after 3 o'clock, where a tasty luncheon had been prepared in the large dining hall beneath the grand stand.

After a few moments of congratulatory conversation and general all-round handshaking, Barrister Haverson mounted a chair and requested that luncheon be begun. Gladly the hungry visitors complied, and two tables, reaching the entire length of the dining hall, were well crowded. President Joseph Power of the local branch sat at the cross table at the eastern end, and was surrounded on either side by the officials of the American society and officers of the branch of which he is president.

After luncheon, the party adjourned to the lawn in front of the grand stand, where speech-making became the order of the hour. Letters of regret were read for the hour where speech-making became the order of the hour. Letters of regret were read several prominent men, among Ald. Shaw, O. A. Howland, M.L.A., Goldwin Smith.

and Goldwin Smith.

Joseph Power welcomed the delegates in behalf of the local organization, and Barrister Haverson seconded his remarks in a short but pointed speech.

Ald. Hewitt welcomed the visitors to "what we think is the grandest city on the North American continent," and Ald. Sheppard elicited hearty applause when he egid he thought hotelkeepers were in just as respectable a business as any men just as respectable a business as any men on the continent. An honest hotelkeeper, he thought, was just as good a man as an honest minister, and did just as much good to society.

Speeches were also made by President Holland, R. W. Oliver, Ald. Hubbard, G. G. S. Lindsay, Ald. Rind of New York and ethors after which another drive was

The Week in Trade.

New York, Sept. 21.—Bradstreet's says:
General trade is less active at Toronto than last week, due to demands for fall stock having been satisfied.

General trade in Montreal is fairly General trade in Montreal is fairly steady in tone, and prices of most staples are stronger. At Quebec city shoe factories have been running on reduced time. Trade is unchanged at Halifax, but throughout Nova Scotia the fruit crop is satisfactory, and the hay crop exceptionally good. Bank clearings at Toronto, Hamilton, Montreal and Halifax amount to $18,608,000, a falling off of more than 5 per cent. from last week, but an increase of nearly 4 per cent. from the week a year ago. There were 43 business failures reported from the Dominion of Canada this week, against 38 last week, 47 in the week a year ago, 27 two years ago and 34 three years ago.

County Commissioners.

The county commissioners, Warden Macdonald, and Messrs. Pegg and Scott, met yesterday in the clerk's office and passed a number of accounts. The contract for the piling at York Mills hill was let to John Jones of Brownhill.

County Engineer Macdougall reported that the steel superstructure for the Thornhill bridge will arrive and be placed in position next week. Also that the superstructure for Milne bridge, over the River Rouge, will be in position in about two weeks. Silverthorne's bridge at Somerville will be ready for traffic in a few days.

in a few days.

The commissioners left in the afternoon to inspect the York Mills hill and to determine the extent of the piling Look Out for the Swindler.

Look out for the Swindler.

A new swindler has made his appearance in the person of a young man of pleasing speech and polished manners, who claims to represent the Montreal Dressmakers' Supply Company. His plan of operations is to canvass dressmakers and take orders for fashion books, which are to be forwarded to the subscribers. He has already secured quite a sum of money, but nothing has been heard of the books, and the subscribers have arrived at the conclusion that the young man is a fraud.

Hayter-Street, - Toronto. Palmer Taken to England.

B. S. V. Palmer, the commercial trav-ler who had his neck broken at Niagara-on-the-lake in July last, and who has been under treatment at the General Hos-pital since, was removed to the Union Station in the ambulgane rectards. Station in the ambulance yesterday en route to England. His wife and attendant accompanied Palmer. It is expected that he will live long enough to reach his home in London.

Back in a corner among the refuse
Stands an old, old churn lorit years out of use.
It's ribs are of cedar with hickory dash,
Whitewood handle and lid of ash.
And this is its song, with many a plash—
"Flipity flop, Oh, isn't it fun I
I will not stop till the butter is done."

And by this industry t And Alearn.

And fi;pity flop, when once they begun

They could not stop till the butter was done.

My mother's hands, now still and cold, Have grasped the handle worn and old.
Ah now I see her as she stood And worked to feed her little brood, While the old churn sang as it ever would "Flipity flop, Oh isn't is him! I will not stop till the butter is done."

A maiden fair, with eyes so mand, with the work with tender heart and soft, white hand, Hes churned away like "all possessed" To please the one whom she loved best, And would not stop to talk or rest, Flipity flop, you bet that was fun, And she forgot to stop when the butter was done,

And, oh, we liked to see it, too,
This dairy crop of the saffron hue;
At broakfast, supper or at dine
We blessed our friends the churn and kiaa,
For it made the buckwheat cakes so fine.

Henry A. King & Co. special wire from Ladenburg, Thalman & Co., New York. The general belief that no reduction would be made caused an advance in Rock Island this morning and increased the disposition of the bears in other parts of the list to cover their contracts. The rumor which came at noon that it was a question of passing dividend or reducing it was something of a shock to the market, and the announcement that usual rate had been cut in half which followed soon after, gave the bears the chance for which they have been waiting. R.I. fell at once to 62, while B.Q. bears used every effort to produce liquidation in that stock, was in demand at the decline.
