St. Stephen ACADEMY.

MILLTOWN, N. B.

THIS Institution will be opened about the first of NOVEMBER next, under the direction of Mr. ISAIAH LITTLE, a Principal, a gentleman and experienced teacher, who has the reputation of being one of the best schoolmasters in New England.

The Principal will be assisted by Miss EMILY C. DENSMORE, a lady who has been educated in the most distinguished schools in the United States, and who has also had several years experience in teaching.

It is designed to make this a very desirable school for young ladies. Instruction will be given in the various English branches, in arithmetic, modern Languages, and also in Music, Drawing and Painting.

Young gentlemen preparing for College here enjoy every facility for pursuing their classical studies.

This Institution will meet the wants of the designing to become teachers.

The patrons of the school have recently erected a commodious and elegant Academy, situated in the village of Milltown, St. Stephen. It is built in the most approved style, and is sufficient to make it a favorable place for study. Board may be obtained in the vicinity, on moderate terms, in respectable private families. Further notice will be given of the day of opening, school, terms of admission, &c.
