 Mr. J. Harry Hicks received a telephone message on Monday morning informing him of the death of his nephew, Charlie Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter of Clements vale. The young lad, who was but 16 years of age, was walking home from church on Sunday evening, and when but a short distance from the church suddenly dropped dead. The funeral took place yesterday.
 Word was received here last week of the sudden death of Mr. Douglas McGowan, which occurred at Everett, Mass., Monday, April 23rd. The deceased had been residing for many years near Carleton's Corner, and left for Massachusetts but a few days previous to his death, to there join his wife and family, who have been making their home in Massachusetts for several months past. Mr. McGowan has been in declining health for some years.
 The 98th anniversary of the founding of Oddfellowship in America was observed last Sunday by Crescent Lodge, No. 63, who, with Autumn Leaf Itebekah Lodge, attended service in the afternoon in Providence Methodist Church. The Rev. A. R. Reynolds delivered a most helpful and very practical sermon on "Fraternality" and emphasized the three cardinal principles of the Order, viz.: Friendship, Love and Truth. The pulpit platform was very prettily decorated with flowers by members of the Rebekah Lodge. Solos were rendered by Messrs. F. V. Jeckwith, Henry B. Hicks and F. V. Young, with Mrs. A. R. Bishop as organist.

 The generous contributions from those who had the Red Cross concert in charge was a surprise and delight, making it possible for us to send at once $50.00 to England, to be spent in comforts for a few of the sick and wounded in the hospitals. We hope to send another $50.00 very soon.
 For the suggestion of the Easter offering we owe thanks to Mrs. Whitte-way, who so kindly donated the envelope, also $5.00 to give the offering a good start. It was decided at our gathering on April 19th that this Easter offering be given toward the Relief Fund for prisoners of war in Germany.
 On Thursday afternoon of this week (May 3rd) we will meet again in our Red Cross room. New work is being started, and we hope for a good attendance.
 MARY S. JOSE, Secy.-Treas.

TO THE PUBLIC OF BRIDGETOWN AND VICINITY
 Having sold my grocery business to Mr. Burton N. Messenger, I desire to thank my many customers and friends for their very generous patronage during the 19 years I have been in business in Bridgetown. I bespeak for Mr. Messenger a continuance of your valued patronage.

OBITUARY
HARRY M. CHUTE
 After a struggle of five years against that dread disease, tuberculosis, Harry M. Chute passed away at his home in Clarence at ten o'clock on Sunday evening, April 29th, at the age of 47 years.
 The deceased was born in Hampton. His father, the late Aaron Chute of that place, was drowned by the capsizing of a boat off St. Croix Cove when the deceased was but a young boy.
 Some fifteen or more years ago Mr. Chute became a resident of Bridgetown, and for seven years conducted a bookstore on Queen street, which he sold five years ago, owing to declining health, to Mrs. J. E. Brooks. Two years ago he was awarded the contract for carrying the mails from Clarence to Bridgetown, and it was then he took up his residence at Upper Clarence.
 He married Miss Evelyn, daughter of Zebulon Elliott of Mt. Hanley. Three children were born to this union.
 The deceased was of an exceedingly genial disposition and made a host of friends who will regret to hear of his demise.
 To mourn their loss there remain a widow, one daughter, Miss Mena, and two sons, Boyd in the government service at Ottawa, and Eldon at home.
 The funeral service will take place today at his late home, at 1 o'clock, to be attended by Crescent Lodge of Oddfellows, of which Order the deceased was a member. Intermment at Pine Grove Cemetery, Middleton.
