

An exact copy of a photograph of a Niagara White Grape Vine planted in the spring of 1878, as it appeared with its first load of fruit in the fall of 1880, on 48 inches of bearing wood, with 63 clusters, at Lockport, N. Y.