

INDIAN WORK.

From Mrs. Redner.

PORT SIMPSON, B.C.

I wrote you in January concerning my trip to New Westminster with Nellie Tenas (see MONTHLY LETTER for May), and have been waiting to get a statement of court expenses before writing again. I enclose our lawyer's bill ($75.00), which has been receipted, as you will wish to acknowledge it. I might just say here that our lawyer, Mr. Harris, is the gentleman whom Miss Jessie Crosby recently married. My own and Nellie's travelling expenses and board bill while waiting for trial I have entered in report, but part at least will be refunded.

We have reason to believe that the case, ending as it did, will be a great help to the standing of the Home in the future. The members of the Advisory Committee, and in fact all our workers here, were so pleased that such a victory had been won for our work. Nellie is still with us, and seems happy and contented.

We have been expecting Miss Elliott for some time, and hope to see her very soon.

The Woman's Missionary Society will very highly appreciate the generous donation of Mr. Harris, and many a heart on reading the above will pray, "God bless him and his fair young bride."
