The publishers of The National Magazine have acquired The Magazine of American History, which was edited by Mrs. Martha J. Lamb until her death on January 3rd last. With the February issue these two leading historical journals are merged into one, and the name, Magazine of American History, that of the older periodical, now in its 29th volume, is retained.

"La Tour and Acadia" embraces one of the most interesting episodes in the history both of Massachusetts and Nova Scotia. This romantic story as presented in the February number of the Magazine of American History differs somewhat from that of Mr. Parkman in the January Atlantic. Mr. Allaben sympathizes with La Tour, which is also the attitude which Winthrop, as Governor of Massachusetts, maintained at the beginning of the feud.

TRUE SENTIMENT.

"I'm writing to Mrs. Montague. Georgie,—that pretty lady you used to take to see your pigs!—has just written me some nice message to send her?"
"Yes, Mummy; give her my love, and say I never look at a little black pig without thinking of HER!"—Punch
